RESIDENTS OF THE MONTH
KATIE and MICK McCAWLEY

Katie was born at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida. She remembers having poodles for pets and playing with marbles. Her Grandpa Milt, a school teacher, was the biggest influence on her early life. She was afraid of strangers as a child, although now she is more afraid of heights! She raised her younger siblings from the time she was eight years old, frequently packing a lunch and going to the school to play. She recalls an amusing episode: "I was a perfectionist about cleaning. One Christmas, while my youngest sister was still sleeping, I took all her presents and put them away (clothes in drawers, etc.), so when she got up, there were no gifts for her!"

Katie's favorite subject in school was English. She was a "good kid with lots of friends." Even so, she sometimes struggled with depression. Her teen idol was Davey Jones of the Monkees. "He was so cute," she says. Her favorite historical era is the late 1800's, and her favorite historical figure is Jenny Lind, the Swedish Nightingale. She feels that the most significant political even of her lifetime was the shooting of J.F.K.

Katie's first job was waitressing, and she had a funny moment when she "stopped suddenly and a whole tray of water glasses went all over the guest." She met Mick (a customer) while she was working at the Golden Spike Restaurant in Salt Lake City. Katie owned Country Dreams Antiques for 28 years. Her happiest memory is of her wedding day. She and Mick have been married for 24 years!

Katie enjoys 1960's music, loves Christmas and camping in the mountains. She has an amazing knowledge of antiques and their worth and history, and finds inspiration in magazines on decorating. Katie and Mick have seven children between them (including our very own office manager, Mary Hoke), and they are both very loving parents and grandparents.

Mick was born in Houston, Texas, and his earliest memory is of walking down a dirt road, holding the hand of his mother, who was the biggest influence on his life. Some of Mick's favorite memories are of having an Easter chick and playing "hide and go seek." During the summertime he picked cotton and dug for fossils and arrowheads. In fact, he lists his dream job as being an archaeologist.

He used to be afraid of the dark, but his greatest fear as an adult is drowning. His teen idol was Brenda Lee. "I was in love," he remembers. His favorite time in history is the early 1800's, and his favorite person from history is Teddy Roosevelt. He was "a very wise man."

"Mickey Mouse" was a nickname he received as a child. Mick enjoyed bread-and-butter sandwiches, and describes himself as "overweight" in childhood. His best friend was his cousin, Keith. Mick remembers that his favorite job was sign-painting. He was interested and hardworking as a student, says that art was his favorite subject, and to this day he loves to draw.

Mick loves rock music from the 60's, 70's and 80's. He enjoys the 4th of July, and his favorite place to visit is Texas.

A favorite memory of Mick's: "When my wife took a shortcut to Interstate 90 and the shortcut ended in a farmer's field about two hours later."

Please stop by The Manor and get acquainted with this wonderful couple!

A GRATEFUL FAREWELL TO SHERILL WILLIAMS

Sapphire Lutheran Homes would like to extend a great big "Thank you and best wishes!" to Sherill Williams. Sherill served the residents of Sapphire for a combined total of 23+ years! In her time here, Sherill held these formal positions:
Prep Cook, Kitchen Manager, Office Manager, Service Coordinator, Administrator and AL Health Director. Sherill filled the holes with roles as Housekeeper, Wait Staff, Dishwasher, Activity Leader, Volunteer, and probably fixed something that was leaking, creaking of just needed tweaking!

Sherill's presence will be greatly missed but she will surely continue living Sapphire's mission in her future life endeavors since the mission has been a part of her for so long.

ROSES AND VALENTINE'S DAY

The symbolism of rose colors is steeped in tradition. Roses have inspired people over thousands of years to develop a language of color. When we choose a color, we are personalizing our gift with deeper sentiment.

RED: Love, beauty, courage and respect, romantic love, congratulations, I love you, job well done, sincere love
White: Purity, innocence, silence, secrecy, reverence, humility, youthfulness, I am worthy of you, heavenly, happy love
PINK: Appreciation, gratitude, grace, perfect happiness, admiration, gentleness, please believe me, sympathy, gentleness, gladness, joy, sweetness
YELLOW: Joy, gladness, friendship, delight, promise of a new beginning, welcome back, remember me, jealousy, I care
ORANGE: Desire, enthusiasm
PEACH: Appreciation, closing the deal, let's get together, sincerity, gratitude, modesty
CORAL: Desire
LAVENDER: Love at first sight, enchantment
BLUE: The unattainable, impossible

DESIRE

I have a man that lives
just over the hill.
Spending time with him
really gives me a thrill.

We have morning coffee
out on the back deck.
My lips dream of coffee
and a soft peck.

We lace our shoes
and go for a morning run.
It's as though I'm his shadow cast by the sun.

He goes to work
but comes back to me at lunch.
We eat quickly
because he's on a time crunch.

I watch him drive away,
then I take a nap.
I recharge my batteries
and read my map.

I like knowing the terrain around our place.
I need some hiding spots-
you know-just in case.

He's home for dinner
but I don't get to cook.
I gaze across his plate
with a longing look.

Nights are hard for me,
I lay there wide awake,
and imagine he breathes
like a dry leaf quake.

But today is Saturday
and that's just fine!
I get to spend it all
with my Valentine!

The weather will be warm
so we'll be outside.
Lounging in the hammock
and on a bike ride.

And wherever he goes
I'll be right there, too.
If only he knew me
and my love so true.

But with my man
I'll cherish being alone.
Yes, it's just me, him…
and my surveillance drone!
