

Women Miners: Staking Your Claim

Healthy boundaries learned in the mineshaft

Toni Hinkle

I. No Boundaries With God

A. Be strong in the Lord because your calling is going to be _____.

B. God is in the business of writing your _____.

C. God always has your back.

“The Lord their God will save them on that day as the flock of his people. They will sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown. How attractive and beautiful they will be!”
Zechariah 9:16-17

The lie: God doesn't see you and that He doesn't care.

The Truth: You are not hidden. His eyes are on you. He has your back, but your sight is limited.

Recommended reading: In a Pit with a Lion on a Snowy Day by Mark Batterson

II. Boundaries for Your Heart

“Guard your heart above all else, for it is the source of life.” Proverbs 4:23 (HCB)

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.” Deuteronomy 6:5

“For the eyes of the Lord range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him.” 2 Chronicles 16:9

How's your heart?

3 Eternal Truths:

1. Things are not always what they seem.

2. We live in a world at war.

3. We have a crucial role to play.

Recommended Reading: Waking The Dead by John Eldridge

III. Boundaries in Your Marriage

- A. Keep the fires burning at home and he won't go looking for wood.

- B. Take Real Vacations: Go far, far away!

- C. Don't Do It All

IV. Boundaries for your Personal Health

- A. What is your personal battlefield?

- B. "If there is one thing that living forty years has taught me, it's this: all God's girls have issues. All of us. Every single one of us. We haul around a bucketload of issues. My issues bucket is probably full of different junk than yours, but it's there none the less." Made to Crave by Lysa Terkeurst

- C. Oh Victory in Jesus!