BIBLICAL PRINCIPLES IN INTERCULTURAL MINING

One of the Biblical examples of Intercultural Mining is the story of Ruth, a Moabite, provides a very beautiful account of one intentionally investing herself in another's culture.

1. Intentionality - Makes an intentional choice to leave the familiarity of your own culture.
2. Purpose - Display a measure of cross-cultural awareness that demonstrates the desire to embrace the culture.
3. Adaptability

CONCLUSION:

More Gold Mining Principles: 2 Kings 6:24-7:20

1. God can use anybody.
2. Don't let the economic situation cripple your faith. Take the risk.
3. There is a miracle when you believe.

One last thing... "God will fulfill every detail of His promise."
