

Kevin and Tiffany Geer have been serving in Children's ministries since 1996, and assumed the position as the Children's Ministries Director for the Northwest Ministry Network in 2003. Together, they have a passion train and equip leaders to do the mission of God, and strategically present the hope of Christ to this world.

Kevin graduated from Northwest University in 1997 with a degree in Church Ministries, and in 2008 graduated from Assemblies of God Theological Seminary with a Master of Arts. After graduating in 1997, Kevin ministered at Seattle Westwood Christian Assembly where he developed a children's ministry. And In 2002, they transitioned to Seattle Calvary Christian Assembly where they ministered as Children's Pastor's for a little over a year. Kevin also serves as one of the teaching pastors at Newlife in Renton. Tiffany is a graduate from Northwest University, with a degree in Elementary Education, and is currently serving full time as a mom.

Kevin and Tiffany serve together in the full-time ministry as proud parents of their 4 children, Morgan (April 2001), Connor (February 2003), Meara (April 2005), and Kyla (February 2009).
