FROM THE PASTOR'S

The House of God is a consecrated space. It is the place where God's people assemble for the purpose of worship, fellowship, instruction, inspiration, and participation in establishing the Kingdom of God. It is a sanctuary, the place of Divine peace. The House of God has One Presider, the Holy Spirit. All those who enter should recognize the Sovereign authority of God to have His way in worship and to move as He wills. Our responsibility is to offer God the sacrifice of praise and the solemn act of spiritual reflection and worship. When this is the norm, great acts of Divine healing, deliverance and grace will overshadow the people of God.

Are you a true worshipper of God?

I'm praying for you.

Be blessed,

PAS
