

Klingforth Family Bio

Patric, although born in Kokomo, Indiana, was raised in Nebraska where he and his wife and daughter have lived up until now. He graduated from Nebraska Christian College with a Bachelor's degree in Pastoral Ministries. For the past four years, he served as the lead pastor at the Christian Church of Waterloo, a small church in Waterloo, Nebraska. In his spare time Patric enjoys reading, playing board games, and writing short stories. He also enjoys playing sports and cheering on the Colts, Twins, and Pacers. While he will stay loyal to the Nebraska Cornhuskers, he would be open to finding an Indiana college to root for.

Patric's wife Callie is a full-time wife, and mother to their daughter. She enjoys all the learning that comes with being a new mom, fellowship, exploring new decorating techniques, and crafting. Callie has a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from the University of Nebraska - Lincoln and was certified in Applied Behavioral Analysis with the Munroe-Meyer Institute. She has a passion for working with children especially those with autism.

Miriam is 8 months old and is growing fast every single day. She enjoys her newfound freedom with crawling and is working on walking with more vigor than mom and dad are ready for. She enjoys cups of water, distracting people in church, watching the movie "Trolls", and getting into anything she can reach. She has been a great blessing to the family and holds the spot of cutest family member.

The family is very excited to follow God's call to Knox, Indiana. They are looking forward to being a part of the church and its ministries in the community.

