

Theme & Speaker

The theme for Winter Peak is "Consumed". We will be looking at the ways we are being consumed by culture, how we should be consumed with God, & how being consumed by God affected the rest of our lives! Josh Stephens, Dean of Students at Lubbock Christian University in Lubbock, TX will be sharing his thoughts on this topic throughout the weekend. You'll definitely be changed by the message God will speak through him during Winter Peak!

Worship

The worship times at Winter Peak are always an uplifting experience and bring glory to God for all that He has done in our lives. Its also neat to be able to worship with 150+ other teens!

Breakout Classes

During Winter Peak, you'll also experience interactive breakout classes taught by some of the youth ministers in Colorado. These classes are designed to challenge, inspire and motivate you to develop a deeper relationship with God. We will look at the ways that each of us need to be "consumed" in our lives, or maybe how we are already being "consumed" by the world, and how we need to change to live the way God wants us to.

Sponsors/Christian Colleges

Some of the Christian Universities will have representatives in attendance, and they'll be hanging out with us all weekend. They'll have t-shirts, etc. to give away, so be sure to meet them and talk to them about their school!
