

Prayers of the People
The Sixth Sunday after Epiphany
Year B
February 12, 2012

Having heard the cleansing, restoring word of God, let us offer our prayers for the world, the church, our community and ourselves, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

For healing to the great hurt of our world, let us pray to the Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

For peace where there is war, or the threat of war, or the steady preparation for it, let us pray to the Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

For the church and its leaders, that they may always stay true to the Gospel and carry the good news of Jesus Christ to a wounded world, let us pray to the Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

For the marginalized, the institutionalized and those pushed to the edge of the community, that you grant them your nearness, let us pray to the Lord,
Lord, hear our prayer.

For all members of the Armed Forces, here, deployed overseas, on the seas, in the seas, and in the skies, and remembering especially those in harm's way, George Datile, Christopher Brown, Jonathan Wendt, Jedidiah Crews, Joshua Tyler Farmer, and Virginia Hudgins. that God will protect and defend them day-by-day, strengthen them in their trials, and comfort them in the night, let us pray to the Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who see the abandoned and remember the forgotten, that they will be strengthened, given perseverance, and wisdom to create a society more heedful of all its members, let us pray to the Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

For the sick, the lonely, the sorrowful, and for all those on our parish prayer list, let us pray to the Lord
Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who have died, that they may share in the heavenly banquet at God's holy table, let us pray to the Lord:
Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant concludes with a proper collect.
