

Prayers of the People
The Last Sunday after Epiphany
Year B
February 19, 2012

All places and occasions of the world, even places of sorrow and death, are transfigured by the presence of the glory of God in Christ Jesus. Let us pray to God for his transforming care, saying: Lord hear our prayer.

For the people of our world, our nation, our city, our community, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the church and its leaders, formed by the life-giving word of Christ, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the hungry, for those who cannot feed their children and for the unemployed, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who are alone, for those who are sick, for those who tend the sick, and for all those listed on our parish prayer list, let us pray to the Lord,

Lord, hear our prayer.

For all members of the Armed Forces, here, deployed overseas, on the seas, in the seas, and in the skies, and remembering especially those in harm's way, George Dutile, Christopher Brown, Jonathan Wendt, Jedidiah Crews, Joshua Tyler Farmer, and Virginia Hudgins. that God will protect and defend them day-by-day, strengthen them in their trials, and comfort them in the night, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who have died, especially Don Lewis, Edward and Mildred Scott, and Al and Betty Sobol, that they may be at peace, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant concludes with a proper collect.
