

Prayers of the People
Third Sunday in Lent
Year B
March 11, 2012

Jesus Christ intercedes for us at all times. Together let us remember and pray to God through our Lord, saying: Lord hear our prayer.

For our divided and restless world, that those who hold power over others may be troubled and transformed by the demands of justice, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the church and its leaders, that God's commandments may be ever close to us, wonderful to ponder and life-giving to keep, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For Children, that infants and young people of every nation may have food, medicine, and learning, and that they may be loved by mankind as they are by God, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the lonely, the forgotten, the sick, and for all those listed on our parish prayer list, that God may accept us at his throne of mercy, let us pray to the Lord,

Lord, hear our prayer.

For this gathered community, that the solemn brightness of Lent may give us the grace to lift our minds above the things of earth and to stand firm in our faith, let us pray to the Lord,

Lord, hear our prayer

For all members of the Armed Forces, here, deployed overseas, on the seas, in the seas, and in the skies, and remembering especially those in harm's way, George Datile, Christopher Brown, Jonathan Wendt, Jedidiah Crews, Joshua Tyler Farmer, and Virginia Hudgins. that God will protect and defend them day-by-day, strengthen them in their trials, and comfort them in the night, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who have died, and those who held to and handed on God's commandment until our day (especially N.), that they may be at peace, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant continues with proper collect.
