The goal of Pine Springs' Adventure Education Program is to provide challenging opportunities that encourage personal growth and positive relationships. Adventure Education experiences are designed to challenge the individual and promote team building opportunities as a catalyst for significant and lasting change.

GOALS: Please list your goals for your group and any information that would be helpful to design the best learning experience for your group.

*Things to think about when establishing your goals

- _ Why adventure activities?
- _ What do you expect them to gain as a group and as an individual from their experience?
- _ What does your group do well together?
- _ What are some areas you would like to see improvement?
