Sing—Even if you Don't Want to ~Pastor Roger

Being able to find and sing a song in the most troubling times of life is very difficult and can be discouraging. But, I can tell you from personal experience a song can be found and sung even when it seems everything is falling down around you. As we continue to move into a new and exciting year, I want to take the next several weeks and share with you how to find and sing a song of victory in your deepest struggles. My new series is entitled, "Singing When You Don't Want To". Each week I will share with you how you can overcome anxiety, trust God even though you don't hear Him, find peace in turmoil and sing a song when life seems to be broken. I encourage you to share worship with us every Sunday – and sing a song!!!

KINGDOM KIDS DAY CARE AND ACADEMY IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS!

Tomorrow, Jan. 27 at 6:30 am, Kingdom Kids Day Care and Academy officially opens for business. Children and teachers arrive for an exciting day together. The official license is on the wall and Karrie has done a wonderful job making the day care inviting and safe. One parent told her this week, "After this tour I feel a peace about sending my child here." How awesome! Take a minute and visit the Children's hallway. Pray as you visit that we would be a light to the parents and children attending Kingdom Kids!

Thanks for the Love

The month in front of us is a time to celebrate the gift of love. There are many ways to express love and just as many ways to receive that love. As I read and re-read the expressions of love from my family, church family, longtime friends, neighbors and acquaintances I am warmed and touched.

On Saturday, January 21st, my life changed in a way I never expected. All have received the word of the sudden home going to heaven of my precious husband. As each day passes, LOVE spills over me like warm honey and I am convinced that the Master's plan is being revealed in my life. Can I really understand? No, not yet. Every time I am tempted to sink beneath the weight of this burden, LOVE rains down from sources ordained by my heavenly Father. It has come from a grandchild crawling up in my lap and brushing away a tear, or someone offering to take a task from my "plate" and doing it for me. At every turn there is a verse or a song such as this one: "Simply trusting every day, trusting through the stormy way, even when my faith is small, trusting Jesus, that is all."

Chalmer and I recently celebrated 25 years of marriage filled with love and ministry. Today I am walking this journey without him and asking for strength and grace to fill every minute of every day. I am willing to trust and not be afraid. Why? Because perfect love casts out fear and when I am weak, you are giving the strength I need to press on.

Thank you seems so insignificant but you are cradling me right now and I am resting your love.

—Pastor Judi

New Online Giving

As of February 1st we are no longer using PushPay for our online giving. If you have signed up for recurring giving, it will no longer be active.

We are now using Halopays—a free service through our website. The giving link will be on our website later this week and a new number for text church giving will also be available.

Online giving is a fast and easy way to pay your tithe, give to the Day Care, Mission Trip, or Faith Promise. You can make one-time gifts or set up recurring giving which takes out the worry of forgetting. If you have any questions, please see Rochelle.

Mission Waco Breakfast

Friday, February 3

Sign up at the Welcome Center if you would help feed the marginalized of Waco.

Children's Quiz

Saturday, February 25

Our kids travel to Georgetown for an area quiz meet. Pray for our kids as they travel and remember what they have learned.

Church Elections

Sunday, February 26

Alabaster Sunday

Alabaster Sunday is Feb. 26. The Alabaster offering goes directly to purchase property and build buildings around the world. This offering is received twice a year, February and September.
