What to do when... Emergencies Happen

FIRE

- ✓ When fire alarm sounds, ushers/greeters are trained in assisting children and adults out of the building.
- ✓ Exit the building thru the nearest outside door to your location. Parents, DO NOT go to the nursery/children's departments.
- ✓ Once outside, continue walking to the perimeter of the church property and remain off of the parking lot.
- ✓ DO NOT go to your vehicle until emergency personnel gives authorization to do so.
- ✓ Parents will meet their children at the South fence. Children will be released to parents after everyone has been accounted for.

TORNADO

- ✓ Appointed personnel is always on the lookout for dangerous weather and keeps the pastoral staff and ministry leaders informed.
- ✓ When warning sirens sound, ushers/greeters are trained in assisting children and adults to safety.
- ✓ Everyone will be escorted to the Lower Level or Rooms 104/109 directly east of the Sanctuary. Children will be located in the Lower Level hallway.
- ✓ DO NOT exit the building. DO NOT go to the elevator.
- ✓ Remain in these safe locations until a ministry leader gives an all clear notification.
- ✓ One parent from each household will meet their children at the normal pick up locations. Children will be released to parents after everyone has been accounted for.
