Investing Through Basic Sewing Skills

Do you have basic sewing skills? Are you available from 10:00am - Noon on Tuesday or Thursday? Are you patient and understanding? ONU's Department of Family and Consumer Science in partnership with Kankakee County Renewed Opportunities needs volunteers to help in their sewing lab. Purpose: to teach basic sewing to people reentering the community after incarceration as steps in developing marketable skills. Contact Diane Richardson for more details 815-939-5048.

Coat Drive/Food Pantry

We are collecting coats, hats, scarfs, gloves, kids and adult sizes, gently used and clean. We would like to hand them out during the December Food Pantry day. Please bring your donations to the North and South Welcome centers on Sundays and Wednesdays, or drop them off at the Church Office, Monday-Friday, 8:30am-4:30pm. Contact Leanne Bishop for more details.
