NEW YEAR’S PRAYER GATHERING
FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 2015
NOON TO MIDNIGHT

This will be a special time to come before the LORD, seeking His face as Parkway begins this New Year.

PRAYER FOCUS: Dedication of this New Year to the LORD

SPECIAL PRAYER EMPHASIS: PREPARING THE WAY
Seeking the LORD’s guidance as we prepare for His service
Individually as well as a church body

It is our desire to have folks praying for the entire 12 hours. A sign-up sheet with 30 minute slots will be provided in the Narthex. Prayerfully considering when you can join us in prayer.

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” Acts 1:8
SUNDAY SCHOOL: 10:00-10:45 a.m.
Age appropriate, Biblical lessons or children age 3 years through 12th grade. A map with Sunday School locations is available in the Narthex. Our Sunday Growth Groups offer a variety of opportunities for you to deepen your understanding of the Scriptures and how to live life with God 24/7/365. All of our groups meet from 10:00-10:45, and are open to anyone who wishes to attend.

- Book of Colossians – Library—We will begin a 12-week study of the Book of Colossians. Paul had not visited Colossae, but he had heard of false teachings against Jesus Christ. He wrote this epistle to the Colossian Christians as a letter of warning. This letter is rich in instructions regarding the deity of Jesus Christ, His sufficiency to reconcile men to God and a reminder that that believers—then and now - are complete in Christ. Please join us in the Library!! Study led by Cheri Ashley.

- Gospel Of John: Let's Explore The Basics Of Our Faith – Room 102—Where do I begin? Ask most Christians what book of the Bible they would recommend reading first, and 99% will tell you to begin with the Gospel of John. This book was written, “that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name.” (John 20:31). Led by Billy Saville & Dan Wolf.

- Generous Justice: – Trailer A—Throughout the Bible we see God's compassion for widows, orphans, and aliens. His instructions to His people included a charge to show mercy and bring justice to the needy. Jesus touched the sick and lonely, and brought healing to both body and spirit. We will explore the connection between when we receive grace, and how we, in turn, impact the world around us. Everyone is welcome to join is this important and practical study, led by Tim Still, Stephen Edge, and John Baskam.

- Book By Book – First Corinthians – Room 104—When Paul wrote to the Corinthians that he had decided to “know nothing” among them “except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. The Apostle obviously addressed a number of doctrinal issues, ethical concerns, and Church problems, but he approached every one of those—in light of the Gospel, in light of Christ crucified and risen for us. Christ was always at the center. Led by Joe Negley, Derrel Emmerson, and Norm Tameling.

- The Wired Word – Room 115—Explore a topic drawn from the week’s headlines, and discuss Scriptural applications. Led by Chuck Beaver.

Youth Sunday School Classes:
Youth Trailers
6th—12 Grades

Sunday Nights – Verse By Verse

Bring a dish to share.
Dee Hayward or Nancy McHale

Wednesday Evening Co-ed Study
Beginning January 14th—6:15 p.m.—Library
A new Wednesday evening Bible study, Life Principles for Spiritual Warfare, begins January 14 at 6:15 in the library. The first class will be an intro session. No homework required.

“We normally wouldn’t blame a guy for aiming high, but it is a pretty radical ambition to displace God. Satan is not creative or original. Everything he does is an attempt to imitate God.

‘...I will ascend to heaven; I will raise my throne above the stars of God; I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly, on the utmost heights of the sacred mountain. I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.’ Isaiah 14: 13-14.

To replace God is not Satan’s only ambition. He also desires to incite others to join him in his rebellion.

It seems spiritual warfare is being discussed and taught more now than at any time in recent history. Yet, much of what is being taught today about Satan and demons is erroneous and unbiblical. However, this increased attention given to the subject can be used of the Lord for good in that it can move all Christians to search out the Scriptures and determine what the Word really teaches about Satan and the Christian’s response to him. This study seeks to become a partner in this process.”

Books will be available at The Heavenly Dove. Contact Peggie Barnes with questions. peggieb@bellsouth.net; 770-619-5140.

Wednesday Nights — 6:15-7:30
Imagine a generation of kids that have stepped into God’s Story and are actively participating in His work of redemption and restoration. Through our dwell curriculum, kids will learn how to approach each day as a chance to live out God’s big story of hope and love. These skills of wondering and then living out of God’s Story will carry them through the rest of their lives. All children from Kindergarten through 5th grade are welcome!

Story Hour
Story Hour is our wonderful time for our 3 and 4 year old children to come to know God, simply and clearly. We use stories and the teachings of the Bible in a way that children can understand to help them come to know God, experience Jesus’ love, and to respond to that love as the Holy Spirit works in each heart.
Now fear the Lord and serve Him with all faithfulness… choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve… As for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.

Joshua 24: 14-15

To the men of Parkway, before we were even born, our Father planted the seed in good soil so as to produce good men. He is the Vinedresser, and we are the branches of his vine. John 15:4 says “Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me.” So we invite the men of Parkway whether a new branch or a mature branch to a healthy discussion about our walk in the light as we continue to grow and produce good fruit, to God’s glory as mentioned in Galatians 5:22 - 24 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. Our call for this is from Proverbs 27:17 Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another.

Dear Parkway Family,

On behalf of the entire Session, it is with great pleasure that we welcome Will Startup as Youth Director of Parkway Presbyterian Church. Will and his wife Lauren have been members of Parkway for several years. They have 2 children, Copeland and Afton. While they are already part of the Parkway family, please extend a special welcome to them as Will officially joins the Parkway Staff!!

We will be holding a couple of events in the near term. First, Will has requested that we hold a meeting for all of those interested in participating in the Youth Ministry, whether parents, committed volunteers, or those considering volunteering to work with the Youth Ministry, on January 2 at 7 PM in the Sanctuary. Please make every effort to attend.

Second, there will be a reception for the Startups in the Youth Trailer on January 11 during the Sunday School hour. This time slot will allow all of Parkway, whether attending the 8:45 or 11:00 service, to have the opportunity to come by and fellowship directly with Will and Lauren. Whether meeting them for the first time or long time friends, please join us as we officially welcome the Startups to the Youth Ministry of Parkway.

Jimmie Berry & Mitzi Keithly—Youth Elders
Parkway’s Stephen Ministry

How Can Someone Become a Stephen Minister?

The first step is to pray. God has called each of us to ministry. Prayer is one way we learn what ministry God is calling us to do. As you pray, ask God whether Stephen Ministry is the right ministry for you. Think about what gifts God has given you and whether they can best be utilized as a Stephen Minister. You probably won’t get immediate answers on this. Prayer is often a journey. Not just one prayer, but many prayers as you search your heart for God’s direction for you. Is Stephen Ministry right for you?

A related step is to look at the spiritual gifts God has blessed you with. Not everyone has the gifts to be a caregiver. Among other attributes, Stephen Ministers need to be loving, patient, non-judgmental, confidential, prayerful, encouraging, good listeners, and make themselves available for God to work through them.

A next step is to look at your current responsibilities. Stephen Ministry is a big commitment. Not everyone who has the gifts to be a Stephen Minister can necessarily do so at this point in his or her life. If you are stretched thin already, now is probably not the time to become a Stephen Minister. Or this might be the time to re-evaluate and prioritize everything you are doing, so you can make the two-year commitment to Stephen Ministry.

Another consideration is to look at your own life circumstances—is now the time? For instance, if you are in the midst of the grief process, it probably is better for you to receive care at this point in your life than to become a caregiver. Some of the best caregivers can be people who have worked through their own brokenness, but usually not when they are in the midst of that brokenness.

If you are truly interested, perhaps the best way to find out exactly what is involved and what the joys, challenges, and benefits are is to talk to one of our active or inactive Stephen Ministers or Leaders. Our active Stephen Ministers are (Christine Crawford, Nanette Kicker, Shannon Moore, Linda Parkany, Ken Parkany, Carla Radzikinas, Karen Robb, Lauralie Rubel, Norman Tameling, Adoneia Van Wyk, Bonnie Vaughan, Barbara Wild, and Dan Wolf). Our active Stephen Leaders are Norm Baker, and Stephen Edge. These Stephen Leaders and Stephen Ministers can share their own experiences about what it has been like to serve as a Stephen Minister. They can answer most of your questions about training, serving, supervision, continuing education, and the time commitment involved.

Potential Stephen Ministers go through an application, interview, and selection process. One of the reasons is so the Stephen Leaders can look at all of the above factors with you and help you determine whether Stephen Ministry is right for you at this time in your life. Stephen Minister trainees receive 50 hours of training taught by Parkway Stephen Leaders. Stephen Edge is our Stephen Leader Coordinator for Training. He is responsible, with the help of other Stephen Leaders if needed, for training Stephen Minister classes at Parkway. The Stephen Minister training focuses on Christian caregiving including general topics such as listening, feelings, boundaries, assertiveness, and using Christian resources. In addition, training covers specialized topics such as ministering to the divorced, hospitalized, bereaved, and aging. Stephen Ministers have a two year commitment which includes the training period. We usually train new Stephen Minister classes when we have enough volunteer candidates with the right spiritual gifts.

If you would like more information about Stephen Ministry, become a Stephen Minister, or if you or someone you know might benefit from the care of a Stephen Minister, please contact Associate Pastor Cido Araujo, Phone 770-889-8694, E-mail: cido.araujo@parkway-church.org, or Norm Baker, Stephen Leader, Phone 770-886-0439, E-mail normanmaryb@bellsouth.net or one of our other Stephen Leaders or Stephen Ministers.

The Role of a Deacon

How Can Your Deacon be of Help to You?

Effective deacons lead by encouraging, motivating, and serving others. Acts 6:5

The office of deacon as set for the in Scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service after the example of Jesus Christ. Persons of spiritual character, honest repute, of exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, sincere compassion, and sound judgment should be chosen for this office. It is the duty of deacons, first of all, to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress both within and beyond the community of faith. G-6.401-G-6.402

- Visiting with you to “get acquainted”. You should always feel comfortable in calling on your Deacon during any illness or at a time of sorrow. Get to know each other before any need arises.
- Rejoicing with you and your family. Sharing your special moments can increase your joy. Let your Deacon know what is going on in your life.
- Being your friend. You can count on your Deacon to listen to your troubles and concerns in confidence. It is comforting to know that someone is willing to be there to share your burdens or listen to interesting plans you might have.
- Giving support in a time of crisis. Allow your Deacon to know the difficulties you are facing whether this is financial, marital, loneliness, health or an imminent death. Listening is a special privilege in a Deacon’s ministry to you.
- Helping to find answers to questions about faith or our church with its theme of Connect, Grow and Serve. You have a personal resource you can turn to – your Deacon. It is better to voice your questions regarding your spiritual life or your concerns about the activities of the church so your Deacon can help clarify and encourage you as a part of the body of Christ at Parkway.
- Guiding you to have a closer relationship with members of the church through fellowship. As you connect with God in the worship services, you also grow spiritually through being a part of smaller groups. Fellowship is offered through Wednesday night meals, Bible Studies mid-week and Sundays, and any number of special interests groups. Find a place that suits you and soon you will put names to faces and share more easily.
- Finding ways to serve within the church. Your Deacon, as a leader in various ministries, is familiar with the places of service at Parkway and the needs that your spiritual gifts can fill. Discuss where you would like to serve as you continue on your journey to Connect, Grow and Serve.

Praying for you and with you. This is a place of importance that your Deacon wants to honor. Let your Deacon know of a specific request from you and be assured that this will be held in confidence.

If you don’t know who your Deacon is and who the members are of the flock you are in, please contact Donna Carroll at Parkway, 770-889-8694.
