Members— we are trying to get a current list of ordained Elders and Deacons. In recent years, the member information form asked for this information, but in earlier years we appear to not have obtained this info. If you have been ordained as Elder and/or Deacon in any Presbyterian church, would you please let the church office know which or both, either by phone or email, preferably email: onna.carroll@parkway-church.org.

We need this important information to update our local records and for our new denominational records.

Thank you for your help.

A Stephen Ministry Story: Barnabas and Mark

Barnabas boldly proclaimed God's Word throughout the Roman Empire at the same time that Paul did. Though he appears in the New Testament a number of times, we know much less about Barnabas than we do Paul, perhaps because he wasn't the prolific writer Paul was.

What we do know is that he was an encourager. In fact, his name means "the son of encouragement." And while we might call Stephen the first Stephen Minister (Acts 6), Barnabas could appropriately be considered the second. He had all the characteristics of a Stephen Minister: full of faith, mercy, patience, encouragement, and compassion. He was probably the ideal companion to travel with on a long missionary journey in a potentially hostile land.

Barnabas' biggest contribution to the Christian church, however, isn't a sermon he preached or an epistle he wrote. It may simply have been his role as an encourager and as a "Stephen Minister" to his young cousin Mark.

Acts 15:36-41 recounts the planning of Paul's second missionary journey. It begins with a sharp disagreement between Paul and Barnabas over whether to take Mark on the journey. Paul is strongly against it, citing an earlier journey to Pamphylia in which Mark for some reason had abandoned them (Acts 13:13). The details are sketchy, but it apparently was enough for Paul to lose trust in Mark as a faithful dependable missionary companion.

But Barnabas assertively stood up for Mark, which may not have been easy to do against Paul. He looked past Mark's flaws and had confidence that Mark was a man he could trust on such an important mission. Paul and Barnabas resolved the incident by going on separate missionary journeys: Paul and Silas to Syria and Cilicia, and Barnabas and Mark to Cyprus. Barnabas' encouragement for and patience with Mark likely had a significant positive impact on Mark's self-image and future as an apostle. We later learn that Barnabas' confidence in Mark was justified, because Mark even earns his way back into Paul's favor (2 Timothy 4:11).

What would have happened to Mark had Barnabas not stood by his side despite an earlier failing? Would Mark have had the opportunity later to redeem himself and reestablish his reputation? Or would he simply have drifted away, a failed disciple? We can only guess. What we do know is that because Barnabas had faith that a young man could overcome an earlier mistake or misjudgment, the young church was blessed with two missionary journeys instead of one—and we have the Gospel of Mark.

Have you had a Barnabas in your life? Did someone encourage and show faith in you when all others doubted? How can you be a Barnabas to someone this week, believing in him or her despite earlier misjudgments or mistakes?

Stephen Ministry is a ministry of encouragement. A Stephen Minister, like Barnabas, maintains faith and confidence that someone can overcome adversity and reach their God-given potential. The payoff for such confidence can be astounding. Just ask Barnabas or Mark.

If you would like to become a Stephen Minister, if you would like more information about Stephen Ministry or if you or someone you know might benefit from the care of a Stephen Minister, please contact Pastor Bill Ford, Phone 770-889-8694, E-mail: Bill.Ford@parkway-church.org, or Norm Baker, Stephen Leader, Phone 770-886-0439, E-mail normanmaryb@bellsouth.net, or one of our other Stephen Leaders or Ministers.

MEN'S MINISTRIES

Wisdom tells us to fellowship with other men and study how the Bible applies specifically to a man's heart and life. “As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another” (Proverbs 27:17). It's time for men of the Church to stand together and let the sparks fly as we sharpen our swords. Please find an area in the body of Christ where you can serve.

Ladies of Parkway,

Would you like to get in better shape for summer? Would you like to do this with your Parkway friends? There are several ladies from Parkway who have started a daily walk on the Greenway. It is so much easier and much more fun when you have a walk with a buddy. We start from the Bethelview Trailhead at 2:00 p.m., Monday thru Friday. If you would like to be a part of this group, please send your cell phone number to Marla Edge at marla@edgefamily.org. All fitness levels welcome. You can come as much or as little as you like, whatever is convenient for you. She will add your number to her group text. We use this as a way to quickly communicate to each other when we have to cancel, when there is rain, etc.

THE MILITARY MINISTRY—NO APRIL MEETING

We will be meeting Wednesday, May 9th at 11:30 in the back of the sanctuary. We welcome supplies - food, toiletries and monetary gifts. Thank you for your cooperation.

The Role of a Deacon How Can Your Deacon be of Help to You?

Effective deacons lead by encouraging, motivating, and serving others. Acts 6:5

The office of deacon as set for the in Scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service after the example of Jesus Christ. Persons of spiritual character, honest repute, of exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, sincere compassion, and sound judgment should be chosen for this office. It is the duty of deacons, first of all, to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress both within and beyond the community of faith. G-6.401-G-6.402

- Visiting with you to “get acquainted”. You should always feel comfortable in calling on your Deacon during any illness or at a time of sorrow. Get to know each other before any need arises.
- Rejoicing with you and your family. Sharing your special moments can increase your joy. Let your Deacon know what is going on in your life.
- Being your friend. You can count on your Deacon to listen to your troubles and concerns in confidence. It is comforting to know that someone is willing to be there to share your burdens or listen to interesting plans you might have.
- Giving support in a time of crisis. Allow your Deacon to know the difficulties you are facing whether this is financial, marital, loneliness, health or an imminent death. Listening is a special privilege in a Deacon’s ministry to you.
- Helping to find answers to questions about faith or our church with its theme of Connect, Grow and Serve. You have a personal resource you can turn to – your Deacon. It is better to voice your questions regarding your spiritual life or your concerns about the activities of the church so your Deacon can help clarify and encourage you as a part of the body of Christ at Parkway.
- Guiding you to have a closer relationship with members of the church through fellowship. As you connect with God in the worship services, you also grow spiritually through being a part of smaller groups. Fellowship is offered through Wednesday night meals, Bible Studies mid-week and Sundays, and any number of special interests groups. Find a place that suits you and soon you will put names to faces and share more easily.
- Finding ways to serve within the church. Your Deacon, as a leader in various ministries, is familiar with the places of service at Parkway and the needs that your spiritual gifts can fill. Discuss where you would like to serve as you continue on your journey to Connect, Grow and Serve.

Praying for you and with you. This is a place of importance that your Deacon wants to honor. Let your Deacon know of a specific request from you and be assured that this will be held in confidence.

If you don’t know who your Deacon is and who the members are of the flock you are in, please contact Donna Carroll at Parkway, 770-889-8694.
