

Van Permission Form

In order for your student to ride in a First Assembly of God van, he/she must abide by the following rules and return this signed permission form to Pastor Andrew Bullard. Failure to adhere to these rules can result in immediate dismissal.

Van Rules

- If you get on the van, you must return home on the van
- If you are not able to attend Luminocity, notify Pastor Andrew by 4pm on Wednesday
- You must stay in your seat at all times
- Keep your hands to yourself, respect those around you, & keep a positive attitude
- If you bring it and lose it, too bad!
- Any friends wishing to come with you must have their parents' permission
- ALWAYS LISTEN to the youth leaders and OBEY them!

Consequences

As noted above, failure to follow any of the above rules can result in immediate dismissal. The following are consequences which can take place for violating the van rules.

- 1st Offense: Warning, parent notification when student is returned home
- 2nd Offense: Parent notification, student must clean the vans before going home
- 3rd Offense: Student suspended from riding the vans for at least one week

By signing this permission form and returning it, you are agreeing to allow your student to board the First Assembly van. You also assume responsibility for any friends your student brings whose parents have given them permission to ride the van to and from church. First Assembly will not be responsible for your student's failure to follow the van rules. By signing this permission form, you have confirmed the van rules have been thoroughly explained to and understood by your student as well as any friends they may bring with them.
