A WORD FROM ASSEMBLIES OF GOD SUPERINTENDENT, DOUG CLAY:

Our mission in this Fellowship is evangelism, worship, discipleship, and compassion. That's where our priorities will always be. Politics will never be on that list. Now, I get it. It is becoming more and more difficult to be salt and light in our culture. The changing realities of politics aren't helping us to fulfill our mission.

I'm grateful that our citizenship, our loyalty, and our allegiance are to the Kingdom of God. I'm also grateful that the Spirit of God can move and work through us to make a difference in a fallen world and its fallen systems. Like Daniel, Esther, Nehemiah, and so many others in Scripture, we find ourselves as exiles, called to serve faithfully in a fallen world, all while having a much higher allegiance. Also like them, we should take our calling to influence our culture and society seriously.

A LOOK AT OUR RESPONSE:

Like you, I believe it is important to take engagement this election season seriously. Voting is a privileged opportunity and responsibility that we have. Will you join me in prayer in the following ways?

1. Pray for God's will to be accomplished. Praying is not a token action. Prayer really does change things!

2. Pray that the Church, as the body of Christ, would truly be salt and light, setting a godly example of people who have dual citizenship.
  3. Pray that ministers will not allow political rhetoric to replace their prophetic relevance.
