

St. Titus One Power Word

March 2014

“Transition”

Transition seems to be what the month of March is all about. Changing or moving “from” - “to” different circumstances.

“Transition”

The winter of (sometimes) discontent is surely fading away, giving place to a spring of new beginnings. Even as we look at not only the seasonal climate, but also the mental/spiritual climate, we can't help but to recognize the stacks of issues that bombarded us.

“Transition”

“But God”. Now we “press forth” as scripture says in order to see and experience the bountiful blessings that our God has in store for us “who diligently seek him”. Remembering that our God says he will do “exceedingly abundantly above anything we can think or imagine”, so “Transition”.

“Transition”

No longer look back in sadness, but forward to expectations with gladness. Come to Church and bring somebody else that they also may experience the “Joy of the Lord” at the “Joy Zone”.
