8:00 AM to 5:00 PM each day

Course Location: Red Lion Hotel Pendleton
304 SE Nye Avenue, Pendleton, Oregon

Cost of the Course: $200.00

Cost Includes: Registration, ICISF Materials & Certificates

Prerequisite: Assisting Individuals in Crisis

Course Description: The SAFER-R model of individual psychological crisis intervention was developed to serve as a simple protocol or procedural guide to aid in conducting such individual psychological crisis interventions. Using the SAFER-R framework as a platform, participants are introduced to scenario based variations of the model. Topics such as advanced psychological triage, grief, suicide intervention, challenges in follow up and referral and self-care are addressed. In addition, participants are asked to evaluate pre-recorded video examples of crisis intervention using the SAFER-R model.

Course Highlights: Nature and definition of psychological crisis and intervention, critical incident stress management and its role as a continuum of care; Empathic communication techniques; Practice of psychological triage; SAFER-Revised model of individual psychological crisis intervention in suicide scenario and a "follow-up" or referral scenario; Risks of iatrogenic "harm" associated with psychological crisis intervention and will further discuss how to reduce those risks; Principles of self-care.
