The Beat

Aloha

It has been a real blessing celebrating the 40th Wedding Anniversary for Brenda and I in Kauai, Hawaii. There was a moment that took on some guilt being gone and being in such a beautiful place. While I was in a Tee Shirt shop I discovered the Hang Loose slogan that is used on the Island - I paused for a moment to be reminded that perhaps it would be good to release the grip on some stuff. Sometimes we think of material things while we are considering this but for this season the challenge was more image and expectation oriented. There are so many places in the Bible that remind me of this challenge and of those who received it - titles, images - position. David had all the Titles and prestige that one could ever hope for - he still cried out to God for help when the bottom fell out of his world at the loss of a child. Just before Brenda and I left a good friend had his young adult daughter die - I helped their family and will continue to do so as the days come and go. All that to say that there are times that come challenging us to the very core of our being that images, titles and position bring little if any hope. I am glad that we have the hope that no matter where we find ourselves we have a Shepherd who will walk through brokenness, pain and loss that Titles and prestige don't seem to make the difference. We are returning and I am preparing to loosen the grip on some stuff. Summer is an awesome time for your family and hanging loose with them. Kauai was sure nice - we want to go back. You should have seen us Zip Line - now that paints a whole picture full of what you need to hold on to!!! Jumping off an 8 foot platform to hang on a cable over a 200 foot drop with jungle and river below while you're zipping down a very small cable - Hang Loose!

Central Oregon Police Chaplaincy

COPC Chaplains

The Chaplains of Central Oregon Police Chaplaincy provide the crucial services that support the region's First Responders and the community. On an on-call basis, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, COPC Chaplains are dispatched to calls including deaths (Code 99s), death notifications, drownings, fires, homicides, hospital transports, infant and child deaths, motor vehicle accidents, search and rescue, suicides, and more. This month our First Responder Chaplains Served and Supported our agencies and the communities of Central Oregon responding to 19 requests.

In addition, COPC Chaplains provide confidential personal counseling and mentoring, hospital and home visits to assist in healing and provide support, critical incident stress debriefing and defusing for First Responders and the community following traumatic events. They officiate at ceremonies including funerals, weddings, celebrations, dedications, and other events. They do ride alongs and visit the First Responders at the agencies throughout Central Oregon. They also are involved in administrative duties, attending meetings, making community contacts, and fundraising.

Monthly training is offered to the COPC Chaplains, First Responders, and others; training to help Chaplains, Emergency Services Personnel and their family members maintain healthy relationships.
