The Beat

September 11, 2001

What were you doing on September 11, 2001? Similar to other national tragedies, the day of September 11 will be permanently fixed in our minds. As we approach the ten-year anniversary of this attack on our country we want to continue the healing by acknowledging our loss and grief.

We want to remember the men and women who lost their lives in that attack – many of them First Responders who were there to help save others. We pay tribute to those who spent countless hours sifting through the debris and the honor that was shown as each body was removed from the brokenness. We want to remember the men and women who thwarted further attacks that day and have helped keep our country safe from such devastating actions over the last decade: our Military, Law Enforcement, Fire & Rescue, Dispatchers, other First Responders, and the citizens of this country.

As COPC Chaplains we want to continue to serve the hearts and minds of Central Oregon's First Responders. As for September 11, 2001, we remember.

Honor Begins at Home

Four men, one calling: To serve and protect. As law enforcement officers, Adam Mitchell, Nathan Hayes, David Thomson, and Shane Fuller are confident and focused. Yet at the end of the day, they face a challenge that none of them are truly prepared to tackle: fatherhood.

While they consistently give their best on the job, good enough seems to be all they can muster as dads. But they're quickly discovering that their standard is missing the mark.

When tragedy hits home, these men are left wrestling with their hopes, their fears, their faith, and their fathering. Can a newfound urgency help these dads draw closer to God ... and to their children?

Filled with action-packed police drama, COURAGEOUS is the fourth film from Sherwood Pictures, the moviemaking ministry of Sherwood Baptist Church in Albany, Georgia. Riveted moviegoers will once again find themselves laughing, crying, and cheering as they are challenged and inspired by everyday heroes who long to be the kinds of dads that make a lifelong impact on their children.
