

Eastern Union Missionary Baptist Association Laymen Auxiliary

In 2008 the Eastern Union Missionary Baptist Association, Laymen Auxiliary took two busloads of people to Washington DC to witness the historic event of the inauguration of the first African American President of the United States of America, President Barack Obama.

To celebrate the final days of this historical presidency, the EUMBA Laymen Auxiliary will be taking a small group to visit the White House in April, 2016 as President Obama prepares to end his Presidential tenure.

Those who are interested in joining us on this journey, please respond to this invitation as soon as possible! The tentative dates for this trip are: April 7-8 or 14-15, 2016 However, a visit to the White House involves a high security clearance and the following information is needed before a date can be confirmed: I will be submitting the names I have already have to lock in a date. Please get your information in ASAP!

- ✚ Full name (including your middle name) as it appears on ID
- ✚ Date of birth
- ✚ Social Security number (for all guests of age 14 and above) (this information will be handled with extreme care to protect you identity)
- ✚ Country of citizenship (the quicker I get this information, the quicker we get on the schedule)
- ✚ Gender
- ✚ City and state of current residence as listed on ID

I will be switching our Congress assistance to Congresswomen Joyce Beatty since she is very familiar with who we are and we are familiar with her.

Lakefront Bus Lines have put together a travel package that will make this a wonderful trip that we will all enjoy.

The package includes: Dinner, 1 night hotel accommodation, Breakfast, Smithsonian Museum visit, Guided tour of Washington DC which will include: Vietnam Veterans Memorial, Lincoln Memorial, National WWII Memorial, African American Civil War Memorial, Cherry Trees along Tidal Basin Drive by Lincoln Park, MLK J.
