2016 Classes, Seminars and Workshops

Reaching Beyond the Break: Expanding Your Music and Worship Ministry Beyond Singing

This course is designed to expose the music ministry within the local church to the worship arts that extend beyond singing groups. The utilization of dance, puppetry, dramatic expressions, visual art, and instrumental/orchestral music into the worship experience also give glory to God.

Developing A Broad Music Repertoire for the Local Church

This course is designed to aid the Minister of Music/Music Director of the local church in developing and utilizing a broad range of music genres within the church. Participants will be exposed to the use of hymns, anthems, spirituals, traditional and contemporary music that will enhance the worship experience.

Do You Feel Me? : Understanding Your Congregants

This course is designed to assist the Minister of Music/Music Director of the local church to better understand the congregants served weekly, in order to develop a more positive relationship with the worshippers. Practical and analytical techniques will be utilized to actively involve the music ministry 'across ministry lines' within the church.

Vocal Training 1: Basic Techniques and Exercises

This course is a study in basic vocal technique and elements of music. This course is intended for those interested in developing their singing voice. Students are expected to develop basic singing technique and a better understanding of the voice mechanism and its function. The sound technique taught is applicable to both individual and ensemble singing. Additionally, information will be given to each individual student on basis of accomplishment and previous study. The teacher will also provide students with basic vocalizes by various composers (Vaccari, Marchesi, or Concone) that will be used during course.

Media Workshop-Open Forum

What's Going On?: The Joys and Pains of Multi-Media in Our Churches

Multi-Media are an essential part of every church. Regardless of congregation size or demographics, media, technology and social media play an important role in communicating the Gospel and enhancing worship in dynamic ways. This session will address the question of "What's going on?" in multi-media in our churches today. We will also discuss the "joys and pains" commonly faced by media directors in their leadership roles as they follow their pastor's direction while juggling and overcoming the challenges with managing budgets, volunteers, equipment and much more.
