GREETINGS OF PEACE AND JOY:

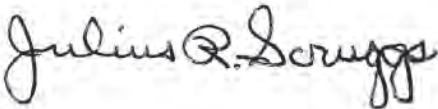

Welcome, delegates and friends, to our Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc. I am excited and humbled by what I expect God to do through and with each of us.

I am profoundly thankful to the Local Host Committee, led by Dr. Clifford A. Jones, and many other capable pastors and laypersons. We are thankful to them for planning what I believe will be a memorable and meaningful Convention experience.

Let us be prayerful regarding the crises and concerns that loom large on our national and international horizons. Let us continue to pray for peace in our nation, the global community, and in all nations where persons are victimized by violence, war, racism, poverty, ethnic bigotry, classism, sexism, and the like.

Let us be prayerful that God will grant to us safe passage to Charlotte, North Carolina, “the Queen City,” and also grant to us a Spirit-empowered Convention in which His name is glorified and the people of God are edified.

For the cause of Christ,

Julius R. Scruggs, President,
National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.

Greetings!

To the attendees of the 112th Annual Session of the Woman's Auxiliary during the 133rd Annual Session of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., convening in Charlotte, NC, this September 2-6, 2013. Dr. Julius R. Scruggs provides leadership for this great Christian Body.

I am excited and I feel reasonably sure that the Delegates and Messengers of NBCUSA are just as excited to have this wonderful opportunity to fellowship with the Carolinas as our Host is.

We will be able to share magnificent worship experiences and informative sessions with our members from across various parts of the USA and the Bahamas.

Charlotte, the largest city in North Carolina, is known as the "Queen City." They boast of great attractions and shopping districts. Included in their greatest boast is the fact that they were a part of the host constituents for President Barack H. Obama and better than 35, 000 delegates for, according to the Host Committee, a historic and monumentally successful Democratic National Convention.

According to the Host Chair, Dr. Clifford A. Jones Sr., we can expect the same coupled with Southern hospitality at its best. Assisting him in this venture is Friendship Baptist Church, members of the 2013 Carolinas Host Committee, and the entire contention of churches from North and South Carolina.

We salute Dr. Clifford A. Jones Sr., the General Chairman, and all who are responsible for planning and implementing the same to host us. We also recognize Dr. Audrey Battle, NC Woman's Baptist Home & Foreign Missionary Convention of NC, and Dr. Claudette C. Cureton, SC Women's Auxiliary of Baptist E & M Convention of SC.

We are looking forward to a great fellowship in the "Queen City."

Dr. Hugh Dell Gatewood —"The Jewel of Texas"

“Solidarity with the Savior through Worship and Witness”

John 4:23-24; Acts 1:8; I Corinthians 3:9-11; Philippians 2:5-8

Greetings to the Officers and Members of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.:

Once again, God has allowed us the privilege and opportunity to assemble ourselves together to give Him honor and praise. I give all honor to God for this opportunity and respect to Dr. Scruggs for his great leadership. I greet you on behalf of the Ushers and Nurses of this wonderful NBC, USA, Inc.

There is a story of a half-witted boy whose idea of forgiveness was beautiful. He said that Jesus came and with His red hand rubbed out all his sins. A quaint man used to carry a little book, which he took very often from his pocket, and which he called his “biography.” It had only three leaves, and there was not a word written on any of them; yet he said the book told the whole story of his life. The first leaf was black: that was his sin; that was his condition by nature. He would shudder when he looked at it. The second was red: that was the blood of Christ and his face glowed when he gazed upon it. The third was white: that was himself washed in Christ’s blood, made whiter than snow. His book told the whole story of every redeemed life. Between the black of our sins and white of redemption must always come the red of Christ’s blood.

My prayer is that during this meeting of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc. we will take a look at our “biographies”—and if we don’t see Christ in every aspect of our lives, then we will use this opportunity to become one with Jesus.

John 4:23-24; Acts 1:8; I Corinthians 3:9-11; Philipians 2:5-8

*Greetings
from President Coleman*

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to rescue us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen (Galatians 1:3-5, NIV).

What a blessing it is to be in the beautiful city of Charlotte, North Carolina, the Queen City, the seventeenth largest city in the United States. We, the body of baptized believers from across the nation, have come to the Queen City to lift up the name of the King of Kings, the Lord Jesus Christ.

- This week, we will share cutting-edge information to further the growth and development of the music/worship ministries in our churches.
- This week, we will learn from each other more about what God expects from us as worship leaders, planners, and leaders of God's people in worthy worship.
- This week, we will grow in our personal walk with our Lord through purposeful introspection, prayer, meditation, and study.
- This week, we will worship and praise our God for His gracious gift of salvation through Christ Jesus our Lord.
- This week, we will fellowship with saints from all over the country, sharing ourselves in divine communion with one another.
- This week, we will commit to returning home renewed, revitalized, and refreshed, so that we can better do the work of Christ in our home churches. We want to do great things for God, because of who He is and for the great things He has done for us.

We pray God's blessings on this week. We pray that this will be a life-changing week. We want to glorify our God in all that we do this week. He is worthy of all our praise!

Blessings!
