But...

"It just happened so suddenly!"

"I never thought she would die so young."

"But, he just went to the Doctor's last week..."

"Who's going to take care of the Children."

"But she said she was going to give Me that set of China!"

"Will? What Will?"

"Junior, when are You going to finish paying for Your Part of the Funeral Expenses?"

Reality...

Perhaps YOU have heard some of these Statements being made in reference to the Death of some Friend or Loved One. Be it expected, sudden, or tragic, Death can be a most Frightening and Frustrating Experience for the Family Members. Inevitably, these and many other concerns confront every Family at the Death of a Loved One. Many of them can be resolved before that Moment of Death Comes!

This Practical Guide is intended to help You and Your Family through the process of Dealing with the many Elements and Issues that the Death of a Loved One may present.

As You read this Guide, may You be Enlightened, Comforted, Helped, Directed, Strengthened, and Challenged to help Your Family meaningfully deal with, prepare for, and carry out the Funeral Arrangements of Your Loved One. May You also be challenged to properly and effectively help Your Family Members be better able to accept and adjust to that Moment when You become the Loved One to be Funeralized.
