ORATORICAL CONTEST

2016~GUIDELINES

The official theme:

“Jesus Christ Keeps Using My Life to Inspire My Generation to Follow Him”

Then He said to them all, “If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow Me”. Luke 9:23

We recommend that all contestants and coordinators have a clear understanding of the National rules and guidelines for the Oratorical Contest, which would also include the guidelines used by the Judges for scoring.

Purpose

To provide training and communication skills with public speaking experience, within the context of the scriptural theme. Afford each contestant, an opportunity to earn a college scholarship. This is accomplished through completion of all required guidelines, supported by intellectual thinking, and having a positive expression of an original written and oral presentation of the chosen theme. The goal of the scholarship award is for students to receive financial assistance with tuition, books and/or housing at a higher education institution.

Competition

The Oratorical Contest will be held during the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education Annual Session on Wednesday, June 22, 2016 in Tampa, Florida at 1 o'clock pm.

Contestants are students currently enrolled in his or her senior year of high school and will be graduating prior to August, 2016, with the expressed intent of continuing their education in a college or university, also known as a higher education institution.

The contestants will participate in a multiple-step process:

1. Compete in their church's Oratorical Contest
2. Compete in their local District Association Oratorical Contest
3. Compete in their State Convention's Congress of Christian Education Oratorical Contest (the National Commission does not require that the contest is held during the State Convention that is the decision of the individual State)
4. Compete at the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education Oratorical Contest, as a delegate of a church registered for the 2016 Annual Congress Session.

The contestants chosen after their State competition will have all the required documentation submitted by the State Congress President, State Youth Director, or State Director of Oratorical, which must be received by Wednesday, May 11, 2016 close of business day; and in turn those contestants submitting all the required documentation, in the proper format and within the assigned time frame; will be accepted to compete at the National Baptist Congress Oratorical Contest in Tampa, Florida. The person responsible for submitting the documentation will receive an electronic notification of acceptance by Monday, May 16, 2016.

The contestant chosen at the State level to compete in the National Baptist Congress Oratorical Contest may be sponsored by either his or her local church, the District or the State Convention. The sponsoring entity will work directly with the contestant in preparation for the national competition. It is imperative that the contestant's travel arrangements accommodate his/or her commitment to present the winning oration at the Children/Youth Rally, held on Friday, June 24, 2016.

There will be a panel of individuals chosen from across the country, to judge the competition. These individuals will commit to attending tele- conference training and an onsite orientation to the Oratorical process. Please keep in mind, our goal is to provide fair and impartial decisions for all the participants in this process, and therefore the decisions of the judges are final.

There will be a first ($5,000) second ($1,500) and third ($1,000) place winner announced at the end of the competition. All participants will receive a monetary award. The first place contestant will receive their award in two parts. The first $1500 will go directly to the contestant and the balance of $3500 will be sent to the University or College the contestant will attend in the fall. If possible, the first, second and third place winners will receive their awards by the end of the Congress week and all other contestants will receive their awards upon completion of the oratorical contest. All contestants must present with their social security card or know the number which may be required for the completion of the W9 tax form. The Contestants that place in the top three, will meet with the Oratorical Coordinator or designee immediately following the contest to complete all required documents and to receive instructions related to their placement in the contest.

Organization of the Speech/Essay

The speech must be original and prepared by the contestant.

The speech must be typewritten, saved and submitted in a WORD DOCUMENT FORMAT, (Times New Roman 12 font), double-spaced, a minimum of 600 words and a maximum of 800 words, using Standard English. The speech must be logical, correct in form and content, relevant to the theme, and address the established theme. The speech must clearly document all references or copyrighted material cited in the oration. All supporting documentation must be neatly printed, complete and accurate.

The contestant's oration and supporting documentation, i.e., (contestant cover sheet, documentation submission form, electronic photo and the student's most recent report card) must be received from the State Congress President, the State Youth Director, or the State Director of the Oratorical Contest by the close of business day, Wednesday, May 11, 2016 via electronic version (email) and six paper copies of the Oration, the documentation submission form and the contestant cover sheet, are to be sent via postal submission to the Oratorical Coordinator.

The email submission should include the following:

- Contestants name in the subject line
- Contestant Cover Sheet
- Documentation Submission Form
- Contestant's last report card
- Contestants written Oration
(no identifying information should be on this document and it must be sent in Word format)
- Electronic photo of contestant (please no copies of ID cards-this photo will be submitted for the website posting)

The postal submission should include the following:

- 1 Contestant Cover Sheet
- 1 Documentation Submission Form
- 6 Type written copies of the Oration
(no identifying information should be on this document)

Both submissions are required (electronic and postal)

Speech Presentation (Oration)

The Contestant must arrive at least one hour prior to the start time of the Oratorical Contest. The contestants may have a reference copy of their speech in the holding area prior to the start of the contest.

The Contestants that place in the top three must meet with the Oratorical Coordinator, immediately following the contest, to complete all required documentation. At this time they will need their social security number for competition of the W9 tax form. The winner will be given instructions regarding their attendance at the Children/Youth Rally (Friday, June 24, 2016) where they will be introduced and will recite the winning oration.

The Contestant's presentation attire is Males: Slacks, Suit Coats and Shirts with Ties and Females: Business Dresses or Suits with Hosiery (please note the contestants may be on an elevated platform facing the audience).

The Contestants are to stand, approach the podium, state the theme and begin their memorized rendition of the written oration, within the frame of the podium (without moving across the stage).

The Contestants are not allowed to use introductions or reference protocols

The Contestants are not allowed to state their names or any other identifying information during the oratorical presentation.

The Contestant's oratorical presentation must avoid speaking in sermonic tones, using testimonials, and excessive gesturing.

The Contestants are not allowed to use special props, costumes, clothing or prompts.

Judges

The Judges are selected prior to the NBC Congress of Christian Education Oratorical Contest. Each judge receives the guidelines and judges score sheet during the judges training sessions. Each judge is scheduled to attend a training teleconference prior to the Congress session and will attend a final onsite review for participation and protocol. Each judge has attested to providing a fair and impartial scoring of each contestant.

The Judges will use the following criteria for each oration: composition, subject matter, content originality delivery, vocal control, enunciation, pronunciation, presentation and mastery of material. The oration must be memorized.

The Judges will give each contestant an intangible score (is most commonly used to describe things that are recognized but not easily quantified) and in the "event of a tie" the contestant that has the highest intangible score will be the winning contestant.

The Judges overall decision is final.
