

MUSIC [and Arts] AUXILIARY PROGRAM
132nd Annual Session of the
National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.
September 3-7, 2012 – Atlanta, GA

*Greetings
From President Coleman*

This year's theme Solidarity With the Savior—Worship is particularly pertinent to our auxiliary. We are worship leaders. We are not stage performers or nor star attractions. We serve week after week leading worship with our pastors who are the chief worship leaders. We lead congregations in ascribing worth to our God. Therefore, it is vital that we be prepared for this work. We must be prepared spiritually, as well as in training and education.

Our preparation begins like every believer, with new life in Christ. Those charged with leading worship must have a personal intimate relationship with God through Christ Jesus. Skill is no substitute for saving faith in Christ. Further, as worship leaders, we must keep ever in the forefront the call of God to be faithful, while doing things "decent and in order." We come this week to encourage and insist that talented individuals be saved, in consistent church supported Bible study and growing exhibited by good Christian conduct.

As worship leaders for an awesome God, we also strive for excellence. Discipline is required in the arts; therefore, we must promote training, practice and proficiency. Our preparation continues as we consistently train ourselves to give God our first and our best. .

It is to that end that we come to Atlanta this week, with a determined spirit to glean all that is being offered to God's glory. Join us! Peruse this program for the exciting details of this week.

Blessings!
