Greetings! The National Baptist Congress of Christian Education [An Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.] will hold its 108th Annual Session in St. Louis, Missouri on June 17-21, 2013. This session will be held at the America's Convention Center in downtown St. Louis, with an anticipated attendance of over 25,000 registered delegates. While the main thrust of the meeting is Christian Education Training, the Congress will be sponsoring our Second Annual College Fair from June 18-20, 2013.

This college fair will provide an opportunity for participating colleges and universities to provide information about obtaining a college education and financial aid to the delegates attending the session both traditional and non-traditional students. We are equally excited about the full support of the United Negro College Fund Corporation, who will also be on-site bringing elements of the Empower Me Tour to our delegates. Opportunities and benefits include:

Supporting Partner: minimum $25,000

- A private luncheon with at least 100 national and state officers and leaders representing churches or conventions with membership in the thousands.
- Public recognition of your partnership
- An opportunity to share your message with 25,000 - 30,000 attendees

College Fair Vendor: $1,500

- A booth at our College Fair where your staff can display and disseminate information and/or give-a-ways for the three days of the College Fair
- An opportunity to share your message with 25,000 - 30,000 attendees
