We are pleased to announce
Project Village
Accepting youth ages 6-18

Children of prisoners are the silent "victims" of incarceration

NBC Project Village brings its program and children with incarcerated parents together with Caring Adult Mentors providing four (4) hours per month of one-on-one contact with the Mentee (child) via telephone and in person.

Goals include:

- Improved school performance in attendance
- Achievement
- Participation and Conduct
- Reduction or no participation in gangs, delinquency, or criminal activity

Rev. Dr. Julius R. Scruggs, President, NBCUSA, Inc.
