

Southwest Region Young People's Department

General Information: Code of Conduct

ALL State Directors and leaders/chaperones are responsible for the health, well-being, and behavior of the young people you bring. While we will all help care for our conference attendees, you are urged to discuss with your groups, the non-tolerance level for the disrespect of others or the property of others. Remember: "Solidarity with the Savior through His Worship," in every aspect of our lives. Everyone will be respected and respectful.

Dress Code:

Use your own discretion for a Christian setting-neat and clean. Prayer breakfast attire: women, white suites, young ladies white dresses; men dark suits, youth boys white shirts, dress pants and tie.

Females: Casual skirts and blouses
 Dresses at least knee length
 Skirts/ dresses above knee No tank tops/spaghetti straps
 No Mid-drifts shirts at any time
 No tight pants/shorts/skirts/Capri

Male: Casual pants/jeans and shirts
 No muscle T-shirts at any time
 No shorts/no bagging or sagging pants

- Everyone must register.
- Conference name badges are to be worn at all times.
- Conference registrants must attend all aspects of the Conference.
- Everyone must adhere to curfew. No youth should be in the hallways after 10:30 P.M. without supervision, chaperon, or Youth Leader.
- Please advise young people to be respectful of others when using the elevators. Elevator buttons are not toys.
- We are using a non-smoking facility. Please be respectful of their rules. Anyone breaking the rules will be held accountable.