

GIVE THANKS— ANYWAY!

Life is hard. Give thanks.

By the fall of 1863, President Abraham Lincoln had faced enormous challenges and loss.

- ▶ A war had divided the country.
- ▶ In July alone, the battle at Gettysburg resulted in over 51,000 casualties, including over 7,000 deaths.
- ▶ Riots were raging in New York City over emancipation and draft laws.
- ▶ His son, Willie, had died the year before.

With immense challenges facing him, the President did what might seem unusual today: he called for a day of thanksgiving. Despite everything that was happening, Lincoln wanted to praise and thank his Creator for a year “filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies ... gracious gifts of the Most High God.”¹

Even though the war raged on, Lincoln repeated this the following year with a second proclamation for a day of thanksgiving.

Abraham Lincoln was not the first commander-in-chief to call for thanksgiving in the thick of war. Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, did the same thing. The biblical account of what the people faced—and how they faced it—contains great truth for us today.

Barry Campbell

Barry Campbell is lead pastor at Highland Baptist Church in Redmond, Oregon. His wife, Marci, is a special education consultant who helps churches strengthen ministries to people with special needs. Together they have enjoyed many years of ministry, but are finding the greatest joy in serving alongside the people of Highland Baptist.

SPECIAL FOCUS

GIVE THANKS—
ANYWAY!

What's your favorite way to express thanks?

QUESTION #1

#BSFLgivethanks

We can give thanks in every situation.

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

Some days it's tough to read or watch the news.

- ▶ Terrorist bomb kills 20 and injures dozens in market square.
- ▶ Corporation lays off thousands of workers, announcing all production will go offshore.
- ▶ Multi-car crash shuts down interstate for six hours.

Because of these realities, it can be difficult to connect with the apostle Paul's command for us to "Give thanks in everything" (1 Thess. 5:18).

Give thanks in everything? Is that even possible when so many things go wrong, both around the world and in our own lives? Thankfully, the answer is yes—and the Scriptures show us how.

During the reign of King Jehoshaphat in Judah, God's people once again faced difficult times. Yet they found a way to remain thankful. And so can we.

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE SAY?

2 Chronicles 20:10-12

¹⁰ Now here are the Ammonites, Moabites, and the inhabitants of Mount Seir. You did not let Israel invade them when Israel came out of the land of Egypt, but Israel turned away from them and did not destroy them. ¹¹ Look how they repay us by coming to drive us out of Your possession that You gave us as an inheritance. ¹² Our God, will You not judge them? For we are powerless before this vast number that comes to fight against us. We do not know what to do, but we look to You.

Unlike famous biblical personalities such as David and Moses, Jehoshaphat isn't a household name in modern times. Yet he was undoubtedly an interesting figure in history. He was a king, for one thing. More importantly, he sought God's favor in everything he set out to do (see 2 Chron. 17:3-4).

- ▶ He sought to return the nation to the worship of Yahweh (see 1 Kings 22:46; 2 Chron. 17:6;19:3).
- ▶ He sent the Levites and priests throughout the towns of Judah, teaching the people from "the book of the LORD's instruction" (17:7-9).
- ▶ He made sweeping judicial reforms, charging the judges to be just and impartial in their rulings, keeping in mind they "do not judge for man, but for the LORD" (19:4-11).

Despite these positive steps, Jehoshaphat still faced attacks from his enemies. In fact, Jehoshaphat's neighbors—the nations surrounding Judah—were combining their forces, preparing to attack and destroy God's people. When Jehoshaphat found out about their plans, he called the nation to prayer.

In his prayer, Jehoshaphat "reminded" the Lord of their history: how He had driven out their enemies in the past and given the land to Israel. He mentioned the promises God had made to the people, and their promises to God. Then he ended with a simple statement: "We do not know what to do."

What are some situations that make you feel powerless?

QUESTION #2

No one likes to hear leaders utter such discouraging words, but Jehoshaphat didn't stop there. He added one more phrase: "We look to You."

At times, we all reach a place where we recognize we're facing something bigger than ourselves—that we don't know what to do. In those moments, we can say: "God, I don't have the power to fix this, and I don't know what to do. But I look to you." No matter what happens, we can be thankful—not because everything will work, but simply because we can look to God.

2 Chronicles 20:14-17

¹⁴ In the middle of the congregation, the Spirit of the Lord came on Jahaziel (son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah, a Levite from Asaph's descendants), ¹⁵ and he said, "Listen carefully, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat. This is what the Lord says: 'Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast number, for the battle is not yours, but God's. ¹⁶ Tomorrow, go down against them. You will see them coming up the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley facing the Wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷ You do not have to fight this battle. Position yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord. He is with you, Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid or discouraged. Tomorrow, go out to face them, for Yahweh is with you.'"

God gives us encouragement when we need it—and sometimes it comes from unexpected places. Right in the middle of the crowd praying with Jehoshaphat was a man named Jahaziel. God used him to both challenge and encourage His people: "Do not be afraid or discouraged because of this vast number, for the battle is not yours, but God's."

What can we learn from these verses as we face our own battles?

QUESTION #3

OUT OF CONTROL

Jehoshaphat felt “powerless” in the presence of his enemies. In what types of settings or situations do you often feel a loss of control? Circle all that apply.

FINANCES

RELATIONSHIPS

ILLNESS

TRAVEL

CONFLICT

POLITICS

CHURCH

RETIREMENT

PERSONAL HEALTH

FASHION

PARENTING

EDUCATION

*Choose one of the categories you marked above.
What do you have to be thankful for in this area?*

Why should we be thankful in a broken world? Because the battle is not ours; the battle belongs to God. If you belong to Christ, you are a child of God; consequently, any attack against you is an attack against Him.

We can't solve every problem, nor do we always know what to do. But we can take three steps based on Jahaziel's words:

- 1. Put away fear and discouragement (v. 15). Ever felt like you're being attacked from different directions? In those moments, we should do as the people of Judah did: set aside our fear, trust, and wait for God to act.
- 2. Position yourselves and stand still (v. 17). In verse 18, we see God's people take a stand on their knees! They would not be moved from their trust in God and they "fell down before the LORD to worship Him."
- 3. Watch God at work (v. 17). When we flee, we miss opportunities to watch God work. Sometimes we have to stand firm, lay aside the fear and the discouragement, and stand in our faith until we see what God will do.

God may answer quickly or we may have to stand firm for a season. Either way, He is with us. His presence is ample reason to be thankful even in our difficulties.

What are your favorite ways to express praise and thanks to God?

QUESTION #4

2 Chronicles 20:20-22,29-30

²⁰ In the morning they got up early and went out to the wilderness of Tekoa. As they were about to go out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem. Believe in Yahweh your God, and you will be established; believe in His prophets, and you will succeed.” ²¹ Then he consulted with the people and appointed some to sing for the Lord and some to praise the splendor of His holiness. When they went out in front of the armed forces, they kept singing: “Give thanks to the Lord, for His faithful love endures forever.” ²² The moment they began their shouts and praises, the Lord set an ambush against the Ammonites, Moabites, and the inhabitants of Mount Seir who came to fight against Judah, and they were defeated. ... ²⁹ The terror of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Yahweh had fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰ Then Jehoshaphat’s kingdom was quiet, for his God gave him rest on every side.

On the morning of the battle, the prayers of the people turned to praise and thanksgiving. And when did they offer thanks? Before the battle even began! Jehoshaphat assembled a choir and placed them in front of the army. This had a two-pronged effect:

- 1. The soldiers under Jehoshaphat heard the praise to God going before them. Praise preceded them into battle to remind them the battle belonged to God.
- 2. The enemy heard praise to the One who stood with Judah.

Earlier, I mentioned 1 Thessalonians 5:18: “Give thanks in everything, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.” Paul was as confident as Jehoshaphat in thanking God and trusting Him. What gave these men such confidence? Faith in God and experience with Him.

When we act on our faith in Christ and thank Him—regardless of what we may see at that moment—we experience His presence, power, and peace. That experience only strengthens us for the next time we face a battle. The “secret” to a thankful life is trust in Christ.

How does being a thankful person advance your witness for Christ?

QUESTION #5

LIVE IT OUT

How will you live a life of thanksgiving this week? Consider the following suggestions:

- ▶ Praise. Set aside time each day to praise God for the blessings in your life. Praise will lead to a greater level of thankfulness in your heart.
- ▶ List. It's easy to create a list of the good things for which we're thankful; instead, make a list of things that are difficult to be thankful for. Beside each item, write reasons why you can be thankful.
- ▶ Share. Be vocal in expressing your thanks to others throughout this week. When appropriate, share how your thankfulness is connected to your trust in God.

"Give thanks in everything." That's a radical concept, to be sure. But it's also a wonderful way to live—and it can only be accomplished by trusting everything to Christ.

My thoughts

Share with others how you will live out this study: #BSFLgivethanks

1. <http://www.abrahamlincolnonline.org/lincoln/speeches/thanks.htm>

Join the conversation

Bible Studies for Life is online!

There are lots of ways to interact with people around the world who are going through the same Bible study as your group.

facebook.com/biblestudiesforlife

Interact with other group leaders and members. Ask questions. Share stories. Get helpful links to additional resources.

@biblemeetslife

Follow us to stay up to date with our latest blog articles and other Bible Studies for Life news. You can also respond to discussion questions by using hashtags that go along with each session, such as #BSFLpeace, or creating hashtags just for your group.

COMING IN WINTER

Spoken: The Rhythm of God's Word

SUGGESTED FOR THE WEEK OF

December 4	Session 1	God's Word Delights Psalm 119:1-8
December 11	Session 2	God's Word Fills My Heart Psalm 119:9-16
December 18	Session 3	God's Word Gives Courage Psalm 119:17-24
December 25	Session 4	God's Living Word Saves Psalm 119:41; Luke 1:30-35
January 1	Session 5	God's Word Is Always Relevant Psalm 119:89-96
January 8	Session 6	God's Word Is Truth Psalm 119:153-160

Thrive: Living in Real Joy

January 15	Session 1	Praying with Joy Philippians 1:3-11
January 22	Session 2	Sharing with Joy Philippians 1:12-21
January 29	Session 3	Following with Joy Philippians 2:1-11
February 5	Session 4	Growing with Joy Philippians 3:12-21
February 12	Session 5	Practicing Joy Philippians 4:4-9
February 19	Session 6	Giving with Joy Philippians 4:10-20

Created for a Purpose

February 26		Created for a Purpose Jeremiah 1:4-10
-------------	--	--