DIS150: The Everyday Commission
January 11th - February 22nd
Instructors: Pastor Calvin Coker and Deacon Leon Fleming

This class will address four critical questions that every believer must regularly face. Students will be challenged to four commitments in response to four questions:

1. What is our divine purpose and why does our church exist?
2. What does God want to produce through our lives, what does He want out of the ministry?
3. What are the disciple-making priorities and how do we meet people needs at different stages of spiritual growth?
4. How to choose the right work to assist in multiplication, how do we encourage others to become fully trained disciples?

Copies of the material for this class will be provided.

DIS333: Read the Bible for Life
February 29th - July 25th
Instructors: Pastor Calvin Coker,
Donna Walker and Deacon Leon

The purpose of this class is to enhance the students to listen, understand, and respond to the word of God. The Bible is the beloved book of all Christians, but often, it has the title of most misunderstood as well. Students will see videos, discuss what they are learning, and develop Bible study skills outside the classroom which will be reviewed in class. Students will gain greater confidence in reading the Bible and applying it to their daily life activities.

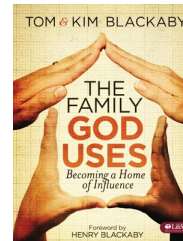

Each student will be provided a Workbook.

DIS353: The Pursuit
August 15th - September 26th
Instructors: to be announced

This is a study from the book of Ecclesiastes. It is designed for four sessions, but has been expanded to six for discussion purposes. Students will study the word to answer the questions of life posed in Ecclesiastes.

Each student will be provided a Workbook. Students that are willing can also pay the cost of their workbook to conserve ministry resources.

DIS373: The Family God Uses
October 10th - December 19th
Instructors: Pastor Calvin Coker, Connie Williams
and Deacon Leon Fleming

This class is for the whole family unit to come and learn how to be a family of influence for God. It is bringing it home to the family and unlocking your influence as a family. It addresses the question of God's design for the families of the church. Families are encouraged to go beyond the study of classes to make sure that their family is getting maximum and most complete benefit.

Each student will be provided a workbook. Students that are willing can also pay the cost of their workbook to conserve ministry resources.
