CHARACTER COVENANT (Camp Rules)

You don't know how excited we are to have you with us this year. This is going to be one of the greatest weeks of your life. But, we need you to do a few little things to help us make this the best camp in Remnant's history. We've worked HUNDREDS of hours to give you an incredible time.

- Choose to have a good attitude this week. You don't have to be "real spiritual" to have a great time, just choose to be positive and make it a great week for yourself.
- Remember to make it an "other's centered" time. Whether it's your first camp or your fiftieth, make helping others a way of life, from the first minute you board the bus until you pick up your luggage to go home.
- Be a servant this week...if there's something that needs to be done, please do it and don't wait to be asked.
- There's a lot of adjusting to do when your family jumps to 250 overnight. Please be conscious and sensitive of others around you and their feelings. On the other hand, DON'T wear your feelings on your sleeve. Remember, "if you don't have something nice to say..."
- Refraining from griping and complaining will make for a better camp for yourself and those around you.
- Rap Groups are a highlight of each day. Please give them everything you've got for that little bit of time. Be there on time and at every meeting and at least try to make the group feel like you're glad to be with them.
- Please...be where the group is. You will have some free time during the day, but most of the time you will need to be with the rest of us. Take advantage of these times and do not view them as optional. There is plenty of room to roam around, but we ask that after evening services that you relax in the area where we have gatherings or hang out in your tent. Please do not take off in cars or private vehicles.
- To all our "Romeos and Juliets"...no PDA...PLEASE.
- Everyone sleeps. We know that "sleepless people" change the tenor of everything and send all our work "down the drain." Please be mature enough to be quiet when we ask.
- Everyone eats and drinks. We eat near the kitchen. (Meals are at 8 am, 12 pm, and 6 pm)
- If you get sick or have a medical problem, please see the camp nurse. (See medications form.)
- Regarding "BORROWING" things from other people...unless you ask, you are stealing. Leave your valuables at home. While we make every effort to ensure a crime-free camp, Remnant will not be responsible for lost or stolen items. If you are caught stealing, you will be sent home.
- A friendly word about pranks-DONT.
- Now for the obvious...no drinking, drugs, or smoking. No weapons of any kind, matches, open flames, or fireworks. If these items are found you will be sent home. Keep all of your electronic devices (iPods, digital cameras, CD players, cell phones (we will make sure you get up on time in the morning), etc. at home.
- Let's talk clothing. In general, if you wear clothing that is inappropriate (including, but not limited to, inappropriate pictures on shirts, spaghetti straps, bikinis, etc.), you will be asked to change. We reserve the right to ask you change for a more modest and/or appropriate look.

Students...
 I have read the Character Covenant, I will abide by the above statements while at the camp, and I will respect and follow leader instructions.

Parents...
 I have read the Character Covenant and I understand that if my child doesn't follow the camp rules as stated above, I am responsible for picking up my child immediately at my expense.

LIABILITY RELEASE

*If you are 18 and older, please sign and date the Emergency Medical Release below and provide emergency information. If you are under 18, please have your parent or guardian sign and date the Emergency Medical Release below and provide emergency contact information.

I acknowledge that participation in the activity described above involves risk to the Participant (and to Participant's parents or guardians, if Participant is a minor), and may result in various types of injury including, but not limited to, the following: sickness, bodily injury, death, emotional injury, personal injury, property damage and financial damage. In consideration for the opportunity to participate in the activity described above (the "Activity"), the Participant (or parent/guardian if Participant is a minor) acknowledges and accepts the risks of injury associated with participation in and transportation to and from the Activity. The Participant (or parent/guardian) accepts personal financial responsibility for any injury or other loss sustained during the Activity or during transportation to and from the Activity, as well as for any medical treatment rendered to the Participant that is authorized by Gateway Fellowship or its agents, employees, volunteers, or any other representatives (collectively referred to hereinafter as the "Activity Sponsor"). Further, the Participant (or parent/guardian) releases and promises to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Activity Sponsor for any injury, property loss, or illness arising directly or indirectly out of the described Activity or transportation to and from the Activity, whether such injury arises out of the negligence of the Activity Sponsor, the Participant, or otherwise.
