- ♥ 5:50 – 5:55pm Sing two Christmas Carols
- ♥ 6:00pm End

The Amanda Network has an opportunity...

L'Oreal Paris has awarded me the prestigious honor of Women of Worth for my volunteer efforts with The Amanda Network, Anti-Bullying Campaign. As a recipient, our network has been awarded $10,000! I'm so excited about this amazing recognition and this prize will be so useful for our campaign. As one of the 2011 Honorees, I will be honored publicly at an award ceremony in New York City on December 8, 2011.

3rd ANNUAL CANDLELIGHT VIGIL SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2011 4:00 PM

Hosted By:

(Winchester Blvd & Hamilton Ave)

Amanda Network Members:

Remember to bring your
"Purple Scarves" and battery operated Tea Lights from previous years. New batteries will be available.

We need your help!

Now our network has the opportunity of winning an additional $25,000. There will be a public online vote for National Women of Worth beginning November 7th. I need your vote to help the efforts of "The Amanda Network, Anti-Bullying Campaign". Winning an additional $25,000 donation means that I would not have to cut purple fleece scarves myself, and it would allow me to write two books, Amanda's Story and How to Treat People with Special Needs.
