

Trinity has had a long partnership with the Chapel in the Mountains in Anaktuvuk Pass, Alaska.
The Chapel celebrated its 50th Anniversary in August of 2009!

Anaktuvuk Pass is a small Inupiat village in the Brooks Range, north of the Arctic Circle.

As a partner in ministry, Trinity provides financial and in-kind support to the Chapel. In addition Trinity has sent teams of volunteers to Anaktuvuk Pass each summer to provide Vacation Bible School to the children of the village. Teams also travel north at Christmas-time to provide support to the Chapel and village.
