Baby Hat Ministry update: due to the organizer retiring, we are no longer collecting preemie hats. Thank you all very much for your needlework that has ministered to all these precious babies. (An option: Ronald McDonald House takes baby afghans.) Questions, contact Carol Harker.

PEACHES! Rochester Youth for Christ (supported by Grace missions) is taking orders for Georgia peaches (No Colorado fruit due to weather damage). For details call 288-45676 or go online at www.rochesterareayfc.org.

Haiti Mission Update:

Pastor Andrew writes: "Our time in Haiti has been spectacular so far...We have been able to feel God going before us and smoothing things out before we encounter them...We have been clearing space, preparing ground, pouring concrete and laying blocks. We have had extensive time to play and talk with the Haitians...We will be going into the community to pray for those requesting prayer, handing out gifts and clothing and possibly continue home building. We also got to attend a church service...It was a powerful experience...thank you for your prayers...Continue praying for team unity, health, and...chances to meet spiritual needs."

NEXT WEEK—We will be collecting the benevolent offering to assist those in the church body and community.

"Godly Men"

Text: Mark 1:29-33

Subject: Jesus

Theme: Men Who Follow Jesus

Prop. St.: Men who follow Jesus are the major links to God

Why? Because of the reasons illustrated in the story of the healing of Peter's mother-in-law.
