DO YOU CARE

Do you care for souls, my brother?

Do you really care?

Souls are dying, dying, dying;

Ah, they perish everywhere!

The gates of Hell are wide and open

Christian, will you work?

Jesus gave His life to save them;

Christian, will you shirk?

Do you care for souls, my brother?

Would you give your wealth?

Satan has his minions blinded,

Steals their souls by stealth.

Deaf their ears to all God's wooings;

Christian, will you give?

Send the Word to rouse their slumber

That the dead in sin may live?

Do you care for souls, my brother?

Care enough to spend an hour

On your knees in fervent prayer?

Tears and prayer break Satan's power.

Pray the Lord of all the harvest

He will send His workers—pray!

For the children, for the sinners;

Christian, pray, and pray, and pray!

Do you care for souls, my brother?

Care enough to rise and go

As the Lord Himself commanded?

Can't you see the awful flow

Of human souls into perdition?

Can't you hear their dreadful cry?

Work, and give, and pray; oh, Christian,

Go! They die! They die! They die!

Grace Howard

The Missionary

He talks to me in a special Way
For me He wants to use
I am his tool to reach the lost
By spreading His Good News
He sends me to the wilderness
Where others fear to trod
He gives me strength beyond belief
I'm speaking of my God
He walks with me each trying day
When loneliness sets in
And comforts me when times are tough
Guiding me from sin
It's hard for you to understand
The places where I go
He's called me here to do His work
For this I truly know
He is my King, my Lord of all
A friend, who's love I'll show
He tells me of the things to share
And places I should go
I trust in Him like no one else
For He is why I'm here,
And thank Him now for all His grace
And pray I keep Him near
For as someone who serves the Lord
From lands so far away
Your love is always in our hearts
Each and every day
We cherish all the prayers you send
God delivers them on time
We thank you NOW, for that special Gift
Of keeping us in mind.
