From 5:45 to 6:30, join us for an excellent dinner ($5 per person, kids 6 & under FREE), and then for presentations from our members)

Join Will Sawyer, serving as MC, and the youth and children of our congregation as they interview some of the senior members of Second Presbyterian who have been at the church for decades, including Betty Cheek, Phyllis Layne, Vivian Young, and other surprise guests! Find out how their childhoods might differ from those of our youth today, and learn about meaningful moments in their lives. Join us for a fun and memorable evening.

GOD'S STORY, OUR STORY WEDNESDAY, October 24, with Tex and Freeda Badkins

From 5:45 to 6:30, join us for an excellent dinner ($5 per person, kids 6 & under FREE), and then for presentations from two of our members.

In "God's Story, Our Story" members of the Second family offer personal stories on their faith and life. Sometimes these reflections come with photos from the past, or with music, or with video clips. They always come with stories about our past, about what has shaped us and our understanding of God and faith, and about who we have been and who we are. These talks create meaningful opportunities for greater understanding and connection, and they encourage each of us to think about what has shaped us and given our own life meaning.

COLLEGE CARE PACKAGES

It's that time of year again! Students are settled into their first semester, they've bought their supplies so funds may be running low, and tests are getting more stressful as more material has been covered in class. What a great time for Second Pres to let our college students know we are thinking of them and we are here to support them!

Wednesday Oct. 24, at the start of R and R, we will be assembling care packages for our college students! These include 8 members who are away at school and 10 from our ODU ministry.

Please bring small school supplies such as post-its, highlighters, pens, pencils, paperclips, emergency snacks (such as packets of cocoa mix, soup mix, granola bars, and small candies), or comfort items, (such as cough drops, Chapstick, small containers of hand lotion, and pocket-sized tissue packs), with you to the R and R, or drop them off before the 24th. We'll have cards of encouragement for you to sign, and we will fill the mailing boxes/gift bags before our delicious dinner.

See you then!

FROM THE PASTOR

FROM THE PASTOR: REFLECTIONS ON BEAUTY

People who know me well know that I have a favorite state motto: "Esse quam videre," North Carolina's motto, which means "To be, not to seem." The motto emphasizes that looks don't matter and charm doesn't matter; what matters is substance. It is better to be a person of integrity rather than to just appear to be one.

On the way home this week I was listening to the radio and I heard a Christian song by Kim Hill. The song is called "Charm is Deceitful" and is based on Proverbs 31:30. It is a beautiful song that focuses on the ideal woman or mother. To be fair, however, the words and description apply in different ways not only to women, but also to men. Because I've been thinking about my mom a great deal lately, and the beauty in her heart and life, the song struck me. The song says:

"Charm is deceitful, beauty is vain But a woman who fears the Lord shall be praised A woman who fears the Lord.

In a world where we see with our eyes
I pray for eyes that see the heart
And I know that when He sees me
It won't be beauty that He longs to hold
It'll be the love that He finds inside my heart."

Proverbs 31 recognizes that some people, sadly, do not focus on the most important aspects of life but instead focus on external beauty. Audrey Hepburn had famed beauty, but she became very well-known for the beauty of her work with UNICEF (the United Nations Children's Fund), with health issues in Africa, Asia, and South America, and with issues involving water and immunizations around the globe. In describing Hepburn, John Isaac, a UN photographer, said, "Often the kids would have flies all over them, but she would just go hug them. I had never seen that. Other people had a certain amount of hesitation, but she would just grab them. Children would just come up to hold her hand, touch her—she was like the Pied Piper." When Audrey Hepburn was asked about how she maintained her beauty, she didn't answer about her own looks, but instead quoted—on a number of occasions—the following advice (actually written by Sam Levenson):

"For attractive lips, speak words of kindness.

For lovely eyes, seek out the good in people.

For a slim figure, share your food with the hungry.

For beautiful hair, let a child run his/her fingers through it once a day.

For poise, walk with the knowledge that you never walk alone.

People, even more than things, have to be restored, renewed, revived, reclaimed, and redeemed; never throw out anyone. Remember, if you ever need a helping hand, you will find one at the end of each of your arms. As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands; one for helping yourself, and the other for helping others."

My prayer is that we as a church family live a beautiful life. My prayer is that each of our lives can continue to grow in beauty as testaments to God's love and to our thankfulness for that love.

With blessings, Pastor Craig

Please contact Alice Allen-Grimes (757-535-0934) if you have any questions or would like to volunteer to help manage the drive on that day.

St. Columba: We will be painting the exterior of the building on Friday Oct 5 & Saturday, Oct 6. This work requires no skill or prior experience, and you can see the immediate results of your labors! Come for a 2-3 hour shift or more. Contributions are welcome to cover the cost of the paint and may be placed in the collection plate. Please write on the memo line "St. Columba Paint." You may contact Joe Morgan at @ 757-419-9852 voice or text with any questions.

Be on the lookout for a new bulletin board in the hallway that provides information on volunteer opportunities, including the opportunity to help YOURS move into its new home at Lafayette Presbyterian Church.

FINDING A MEANINGFUL LIFE WHEN THE WORLD FEELS MEANINGLESS / ECCLESIASTES

What matters in life? Where can we find meaning? What happens when it seems like nothing makes sense? The author of Ecclesiastes sounds surprisingly modern as he confronts meaninglessness head-on, expressing the anxieties and questions that arise when we realize that life is not turning out as we had planned, and when we wonder what our next steps might be.

Oct. 7 "Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For" (Eccl. 1:1-18)

Oct. 14 "Hating Pleasure and Life: The Allure of Cynicism" (Eccl. 2:1-26)

Oct. 21 "Understanding the Timing of God" (Eccl. 3:1-15)

AN UPDATE ON ASIA ROGERS

Asia Rogers began attending Park Place Child Life Center when she was in fourth grade and was truly an asset to the program. During her senior year, Asia volunteered every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at homework club. Her kindness and patience with the children was always evident. In the photo to the left, Asia is holding the Explosion Book she made at PPCLC. It is a mixed media book symbolizing unity, and made with origami paper folding.

We are so proud of all Asia has accomplished! She graduated a year early with honors and received a full scholarship to Mary Baldwin University.

Many thanks to all who generously donated time, money, and supplies to help her achieve her goals.

ADULT BOOK CLUB: ECCLESIASTES AND THE SEARCH FOR MEANING 9:45 -10:30 a.m., Fellowship Hall, Oct. 7-28 (A 4-WEEK SERIES)

The October sermon series focuses on passages in the book of Ecclesiastes. It is an odd, sometimes even somewhat depressing book. Said to have been written by Solomon in his older years, it looks meaninglessness squarely in the eye. Why is it important for us today?

Join Marie Finch and Catherine Hart Monroe as they lead a discussion of scripture passages from the book of Ecclesiastes beyond those being discussed in worship.

SECOND LIFE

PARABLES, PRAYERS, AND PICK-ME-UPS 5 YEAR OLDS THROUGH MIDDLE SCHOOL

(Sunday mornings, 9:45-10:30 a.m.)

Each Sunday this fall join Pastor Craig and important helpers (including our youth) as we study and encounter the parables (the stories that Jesus told), have a snack, play games, learn a new prayer each week, and discover unusual ways in which people pray and understand God in their lives.

Join us in the large upstairs Sunday School room at 9:45 a.m. for some of the amazing stories told by Jesus—often told to catch us off-guard so we would listen more carefully.

YOUTH & FAMILY MINISTRY

It has been a blessing to be received so warmly into this ministry in the past month, and it has been joy to work with others to coordinate meaningful events and projects! Below you will find an action-packed month focused on events to engage our youth and families in mission, fellowship, and worship here at Second.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact myself, Katie White, at kkerr12@spcnorfolk.org or 757-615-8728.

Blessings,

Katie

We are partnering with St. Andrews-Covenant Presbyterian Church (SACPC) in Wilmington, NC, and we will be delivering "hurricane buckets" of cleaning supplies, as well as diapers and wipes, to SACPC on October 1st. These items then will be distributed to families in need in the Wilmington area. Stay tuned for more ways to support those affected by Hurricane Florence! Please contact Rev. Catherine Hart Monroe at 757.287.9897 or revcat@spcnorfolk.org for more details.

FALL CHURCH WORK DAY SATURDAY, October 20

We need your help on Saturday morning, October 20, at 9:00 a.m. The Annual Fall Cleanup is a wonderful opportunity for folks of all ages and skill sets to get to know their church family in a very meaningful way and—at the same time—to clean the church and to make it look great. We'll have hot coffee, OJ, and donuts ready for you. Thank you for helping!

THE MOVIE "UP" WITH PIZZA: AN INTERGENERATIONAL EVENT FRIDAY, October 12 6:30PM

The animated film "UP" is a film all ages can enjoy. It tells the story of Carl, a balloon salesman who ends up going on the trip of his dreams, yet finds a couple of surprises along the way. The surprises make him realize sometimes life's adventures are not the ones you anticipated. The themes in this movie fit in well with the Ecclesiastes sermon series Pastor Craig is preaching on in October. Everyone in the church is invited to bring a pillow, a sleeping bag, or just come and sit in the pews in the sanctuary and enjoy some pizza while watching a movie together! If you have any questions, please see Katie White.

There is definitely a place for YOU at Second Presbyterian!
