New Pastors on the Intermountain District

John Day - Ron and Kathy Roberson are coming to the district from the Central California District where he has been pastoring the Sonora New Hope Community Church of the Nazarene.

Ron attended Warner Pacific College and Western Evangelical Seminary. His philosophy of pastoral leadership can be summed up in the quote, "Leading gently always pays greater dividends than pounding people into submission. Cattle are driven; sheep must be led."

Pastor Roberson has skills for construction and can bake an outstanding oatmeal-chocolate chip cookie.

Kathy has the gifts of encouragement and hospitality and is a seasoned worship leader. She earned her bachelor of science degree in nursing at Point Loma Nazarene University.

The Robersons have two grown sons, Ryan and Christopher.

Twin Falls - Meet Pastor David Mowry, his wife Melissa, his daughter Camilla, and son Blake. The Mowrys are coming to us from Bethany, OK where David has been on staff since 2008. He has earned bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees from Northwest Nazarene University and has served in ministry positions in Puyallup, Spokane, and Enumclaw WA. "It's all about Jesus," states Pastor Mowry. "I have experienced that Jesus really does make a difference in the everyday life of a person who trusts in Him."

Melissa is described as bringing quality to everything she does. She has been working as an educator for a company that provides help for high-risk young families. Camilla is in ninth grade and loves playing the cello, writing poetry, and being with her friends. Blake is in seventh grade, loves singing in choirs, playing soccer, and art. David's interests include playing drums, tennis, racquetball, basketball, snowboarding, hiking, reading, graphic design, video editing, and trying new experiences.

We welcome the Robersons and the Mowrys to the Intermountain District Team.

Engage THE WORD

PLANNING AHEAD

“Did you know that intentionally engaging the Word of God four times or more a week has a statistically proven impact on a person’s worldview, attitudinal habits, and behavior choices.” Dr. Woodie Stevens, Global Director for SDMI Church of the Nazarene.

Church leaders, be sure to put “Engage the Word” on your calendar for this Fall (end of Sept – Nov). This is a 40-day emphasis challenging your people to spend consistent time in God’s Word. You will be receiving a packet this summer with all the information.

Following Jesus Together,
Tim Brewer, Team Leader
Intermountain District SDMI

NMI CONVENTION IS HERE!

May 11-12, 2012

The theme of our convention this year:

Exalt His Name Together

You are all WELCOME!

Come hear our special missionary speaker, Bob McCroskey and his wife. There will be great workshops for everyone. We’ll have a box lunch (reservations by May 7) on Friday noon, May 11. Good music, lots of celebration and praise. Friday evening will be our service with the children and youth participating. Saturday morning will begin with a breakfast and a devotional by our missionary, Bob McCroskey, in the College Church gym. Then we will go out to do our Community service projects. You will not want to miss these two wonderful days.

The schedule is as follows:

Friday, May 11

- 12:00-1:00 Box Lunch
- 1:15 Special music
- 1:30 Opening of our NMI Convention
- 1:40-5:00 Business Session and great workshops
- 5:00-6:00 Dinner on your own
- 6:30-8:30 Evening Celebration

Saturday, May 12

- 8:00-9:00 Breakfast and devotional by Bob McCroskey (College Church Gym)
- 9:00-11:30 Special Community Service Projects

We look forward to seeing you as we
‘EXALT HIS NAME TOGETHER’

With joy in serving HIM,
Carollita Fraley
District NMI President

Crosswalks Cares

We need your help with three projects:

- Water bottles on BSU move-in day in August
- Bags with our logo for care kits
- A mobile food pantry

Contribute at District Assembly, or it would make a great VBS project. For more information, visit our website at crosswalkscampusministry.org or scan the QR Code into your smart phone.

Loving fearlessly,
Ben Moore, Director
Crosswalks Campus Ministry
