

NCS Board of Trustees 2010-2011

Simon VanderWoude (Chairman of the Board)-Simon owns a dairy testing business and Legacy Feed & Fuel--a convenience and implement store. Simon and his wife Krisha have four children, Janneke, Caleb, Elijah and Elsie. Simon applies his business acumen as Foundation Board President and as a Personnel Committee member.

Kent Berggren is a graduate of Northwest Nazarene University and is an Internet Development Manager for MWI Veterinary Supply. Kent and his wife Stacey have two daughters, Kenzi and Karli. He will be serving on the Development, Finance and Proud committees.

Sue Buuck-Sue is a graduate of Concordia-Wisconsin. Sue previously served as bank branch manager in Meridian and Portland. She presently serves as a community volunteer including Nampa Christian PTF and the Lutheran church camp. Sue and her husband Tom have two children McKenzie and Tanner. Sue lends her enthusiasm and insight serving on the Personnel, Auction, Foundation and Enrollment committees.

Ed Castledine-Ed works for St. Luke's Hospital in public relations and development. Ed and his wife Alison have five children, Katie, Daniel, Jackson, Kelsey and Megan. Ed's contribution to the Board includes providing marketing and fund raising expertise on the Development and Proud Committees.

Simon deJong-Simon works as an independent businessman in the area in real estate management and construction. Simon and his wife Deb have five children Johanna, Simon, Annetta, Ella, and Joshua. Simon's business background provides expertise to the Buildings and Grounds and Proud Committees.

Amy Gill-Amy is a community volunteer and coordinates many Board and Foundation activities. Amy and her husband Ben have one son, Nick. Amy is vice chair of the Foundation Board and she uses her organizational skills to serve on the Foundation and Development Committees.

Bill Savage (Treasurer of the Board)-Bill is the CEO of Saltzer Medical Group, one of the largest health care employers in the State. Bill and his wife Debbie have two children, Troy and Seth. With Bill's extensive expertise in accounting, he fills important roles on the Finance, Development and Auction Committees.

Melaney Taylor (Secretary of the Board)-Melaney is a graduate of the U of I. She is the Fellowship Ministry Team leader at church and an NCS community volunteer. Melaney and her husband, Ted, have three children, Tiffany, Tawny, and Thomas. She contributes expertise with the high school drama production, PTF, and serves on the Financial Aid, Auction, Personnel and Enrollment Committees.

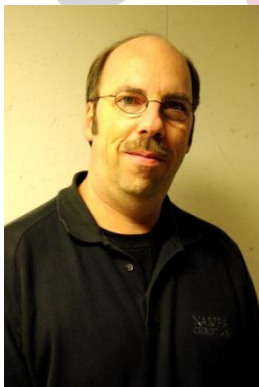

Morris Weatherford-Morris works as a store manager for Nampa Floors and Interiors. He and his wife have four children, Justin, Alissa, Kylie and Makenzie. Morris applies his business and professional backgrounds as the chair of the Auction and Buildings and Grounds committees.

NCS Administrators

Eric Forseth (Superintendent)-Eric came to Nampa Christian Schools in 2009. Previously, he served as Board Chair for Nampa Christian Schools. Eric and his wife Kim have two children, Lindsay and Nathan. Eric's professional background is in educational administration, enrollment and marketing.

Kevin Rex (High School Principal)-Kevin came to Nampa Christian Schools in 2007. Previously, he served at Christian schools in California. Kevin and his wife Julie have two children, Nikolas and Nathan. Kevin brings a solid background of teaching and administrative experience to his role as high school principal.

Julie Vermillion (Interim PreK-6th Principal)-Julie started at NCS as an elementary teacher at the Orchard campus and most recently she has served as vice principal at the 7-12 Flamingo campus. Previous to serving at NCS, she was the lead administrator at an Idaho charter school and served in a similar capacity in Oklahoma. Julie and her husband Brian have one son, Jesse.