

Nampa Christian High School

Graduates to College (2006-2011)

Nampa Christian High School graduates enter college programs at an annual average of 98% of the class over the past three years. These admissions include both 4-year and 2-year institutions. The “other” category would include military service or workforce.

The national average of high school graduates entering college is 63.3% (with Idaho at 49.1%).*

*- NC Higher Education Information Center (www.higheredinfo.org) 2008

