Religious Background

Nampa Christian is a private, Christian high school. All of our teachers are Christians and we study the Bible and Christian issues in most classes. The Christian message is a part of our daily school life, in addition we have a weekly chapel worship service and attendance is mandatory. Because the educational philosophy of Nampa Christian is based on the Bible, all students need to be willing to learn about Jesus, the Bible and the biblical worldview.

Your host family will be Christian and will most likely go to church on Sunday mornings. You will be expected to attend with them as part of their family. Churches have great youth activities and it is a great way to make friends and learn about American culture and the Christian faith.
