PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Pam Neal,
President

"Together We Can -- Together We Will"

The 2019 ATS in Wichita is now a memory. What a great memory it is! It was a wonderful week of informative classes, lots of fellowship and networking, and time to rekindle old friendships and make new ones.

Thank you to our hard-working ATS Committee led by Chair, Mike Hardgrove, Conference Director, Frank O'Laughlin and Executive Director, Ruby Kinlaw. They worked tirelessly to make sure every need was met and details were checked to make everything go smoothly from the Registration to the Closing Ceremony. If you were there, I know you were blessed by the event.

Now the ATS is in our rearview mirror, the ruby red slippers are put away, and we have settled back in to our daily routines and chaplaincy. My hope is that those who attended discovered new tools and ways of making their chaplaincy work easier and more rewarding. I hope those who attended know of people they met that they can call for advice or just to talk about a difficult call. A huge reason of why we provide an ATS is our desire to know that those who attended are stronger and refreshed to be even more committed to their Officers, Agency Personnel and families, as well as civilians within their local community.

Congratulations to our newly elected Officers: Ronnie White, President-Elect, Jim Bontrager, Vice President, Cyndee Thomas, Secretary, and Bob Heath, Treasurer. I am grateful for their commitment to ICPC leadership and look forward to working alongside them to serve ICPC. Mark Bardsley will serve on the Executive Committee in the role of Immediate Past President. I am so grateful for Mark's leadership these past two years and look forward to having his wisdom as we work together these next two years. I am also grateful for our hard-working Executive Director, Ruby Kinlaw. Her knowledge and experience are invaluable. Ruby and the ICPC staff do an amazing job of keeping all of us on track and tending to all the many details of keeping ICPC running well. You have a wonderful Executive Committee that is very committed to serving and dedicated to taking ICPC to the next level of "developing dynamic Chaplains through education and support."

I am in the process of making Committee assignments. Most of the Committee Chairs have been appointed, but some are still vacant as I am talking to people. You will find a list elsewhere in the Journal. Committee member appointments will be filled soon as well. If you have a committee on which you would like to serve, send me an email about your committee interest and I will do my best to accommodate your request.

If you attended the banquet at the ATS, you heard me say how incredibly honored I am to serve as your President. It is both exciting and daunting as I begin the two-year term as President. As I have said before, I believe we have the best organization there is for training law enforcement chaplains and supporting law enforcement chaplaincy worldwide. We offer so much with our membership. I also believe we can be better. How do we do that?

As I have listened to our members, I believe we need better communication and will be exploring ways that we can keep members better informed and for members to express their views. I believe that we cannot be still in our education offerings, but must be reviewing and revising to keep our education material relevant and helpful to our members so that they can be the very best chaplains they can be. I believe we have to find more and better ways to take care of each other. We found at the ATS that there are Chaplains suffering from the effects of the very situations in which they have helped their officers. We cannot adequately take care of others if we do not first take care of ourselves.

These are just a few of the things to work on in the weeks and months ahead. I am grateful for each and every one of you. As I said at the ATS Banquet, we are family. Family cares about each other and helps each other. I believe we can grow stronger as chaplains and as ICPC as we care for each other. You are ICPC. You make ICPC what it is today and tomorrow.

Years ago, the ICPC President, Wes McDuffie, inspired me when he challenged us that "Together We Can." He inspired me to become more active in ICPC and take on the role of Education Committee Chair and standardize and revise the Basic Classes at that time. Through that involvement, I have grown to love and to treasure the ICPC Family as an important part of my life.

Many have come before us who worked tirelessly to make ICPC what it is today. We cannot sit still. The world is changing so quickly. Law enforcement is changing drastically. We have to keep looking for ways to do chaplaincy the very best.

Together we can do so much more than any one of us on our own. Together we are strong and have so much more to offer our police officers and families. Together we can make ICPC even better than it is today. So, with his permission, I added a phrase to Wes's theme from several years ago.

For me it is more than, "Together We Can." Let us commit to doing and say, "Together We Will." I challenge you to join in this theme and become part of making ICPC even better and stronger. We can be stronger in membership; we can be stronger in fundraising; we can be stronger in our education; we can be stronger in our networking; we can be stronger in helping each other through difficult times.

"Together We Can -- Together We Will".

Will you join me?

Public Relations Committee

Richard Hartman, Chair

I pray each of you is doing well. The Public Relations Committee of ICPC is planning on approaching this year with a two-prong agenda 1) How do we reach people outside of the ICPC community? 2) How do we reach people inside the ICPC community?

With the agenda of how do we communicate with these two groups, it got me thinking as to, "Who should be on this committee?" Initially, I thought everyone should be on this committee as it is the responsibility of everyone to reach out to others and explain the benefits of being a member of ICPC. While that would be an awesome committee it would not very useful. So who should be on this committee? How do we determine the members of any committee? One of the communication pieces we use in the congregation I serve as Pastor we have a commitment questionnaire to help people discern their gifts and to help them become an active part of our faith community. It lists all of the different committees and groups involved in our community. People can choose to mark any number of different groups that they are interested in participating. I am not aware of any kind of communicate from our organization? I was wondering if this would be a helpful tool to other committees and groups in our organization? It might help us to spread the workload out to more members. We may have people with some great experience for a particular task and not even know it. I know a number of people in our organization but I certainly don't know all of their gifts and abilities.

While I am not trying to "reinvent the wheel," I am trying to be a useful tool in our toolbox. Any thoughts on this approach would be appreciated. It would be my hope that we would be better informed of the different skill levels we have in our members.

Thank you for your thoughts and willingness to lead ICPC today and into the future.

Please feel free to send your response to pastor@epiphanyfw.com.

Sincerely,
Chaplain Richard Hartman

EL PASO STRONG

Mass Shooting at Walmart in El Paso, Texas, Saturday, Aug. 3, 2019.

The irony is, I was taking an Advanced Instructor Group and Individual CISM class in Houston, TX when my phone started to ring. The first time I canceled the call, but when the American Red Cross (ARC) called the second time within just seconds, I realized it must be urgent. Sure enough, on the other end of the line was Beth Boyd, Disaster Program Manager with the ARC. Beth said, "We need you to respond to El Paso. We have had a shooting in a mall with 18 dead and dozens wounded." She went on to brief me with the information available at that time, as this was only twenty to thirty minutes after the event occurred. I finished the class and was on a plane the next day to El Paso.

When I and other members of the American Red Cross arrived in El Paso, we were taken to the Convention Center where we were instructed to welcome the people, but not to engage in any conversation about the event until the people were questioned by the FBI, who were taking the lead in this incident. After the people were interviewed by the FBI, they were released to talk with us, as many did. For the most part, these people had been shopping at the Walmart when the shooting occurred and had left their belongings and vehicles at Walmart. All these possessions were a part of the crime scene and had to be checked before they were released to their owners. People did not receive their vehicles or possessions back until they had a conversation with the FBI. There were many undocumented people who were fearful of checking in, as you can imagine. The residents of El Paso gave a very warm reception to those of us who were part of the ARC Care Team and treated us royally.

On Tuesday evening, the ARC Care team attended the Memorial at the backside of the Walmart. Hundreds of people were gathered and continued to gather through the evening at this growing Memorial to the victims of the shooting. Flowers, pictures of victims killed, flags, plaques with memorial sentiments written on them, as well as candles burning in honor of the victims, were stretched over an area of several hundred feet in length, and ten feet deep. A couple dozen News Media trucks lined the parking lot waiting to get photos of people at the Memorial, along with attempting as many interviews as they could get. Many faith groups, along with cultural groups, were present at the Memorial, singing and performing ceremonial dances, to honor the fallen. It was wonderful and moving to see the outpouring of love and care from the El Paso community who were all deeply touched and changed forever by this unthinkable tragedy.

The ARC Care team handed out water and waited for people to express a desire to talk. It did not take long for people to respond to us and share their concerns, grief, and fear. We spoke to so many about the fear expressed by their children, fearful to go to the store for their school supplies etc. I was able to speak with the lady who video taped the shooting from inside the Walmart. She shared with me how she and her 92-year-old mother were inside the store, and they believed they were going to die. I was also able to speak with wounded employees of the store, as well as a woman who took two rounds through her leg, and her husband at the time of writing this account, is still in critical condition with multiple wounds.

As a side note, the Media did not always portray an accurate picture of peoples' feelings and reactions in the face of this event. Whenever an individual would express an opinion that the Media did not want to hear, the Media could cut off the interview.

In talking with the Law Enforcement personnel, once they knew I was a Police Chaplain serving with the Red Cross, they spoke with me more freely. I inquired if they had any opportunity for a CISM debriefing or defusing after this critical incident. At that point, they had not had this made available to them. They spoke of friends who were officers responding to this call that had no intervention, at the time of our conversation. I was privileged to be able to provide some peer support to the officers I spoke with.

El Paso is a beautiful city that was invaded by a domestic terrorist. Out of the darkness, sorrow, and tragedy of this event, it is my impression that the city was brought together to love and support each other. Let us continue to pray for healing and peace for those families who lost loved ones, for the citizens of El Paso, and for those in places of leadership in this city. May God bless and heal El Paso in the days and months to come!

Developing Professional Chaplains through Dynamic Education and Support

History of ICPC LOGO

The ICPC logo is shaped like a five-pointed star of the early peace officer which was made famous by the Texas Rangers. Superimposed upon this is the more modern shield, the badge of office for those who have sworn to “shield” the public from those who would violate the law.

A field of blue, for truth, is surrounded by a circle of gold, for the unity of our chaplain family. Superimposed on the shield are the symbols of the Judean-Christian faith, signifying faiths of ICPC’s Founders, the six-pointed Star of David and the Cross of Christ.

A laurel wreath, a symbol of honor, surrounds the shield distinguishing the law enforcement profession. At the top of the shield is a rising sun signifying God’s Word.

Thus, we have both symbols of law enforcement and faith inextricably woven together and superimposed to symbolize our office as law enforcement chaplains.

A Word About the Credential Process

RICHARD KASSEL, CREDENTIAL CHAIR

Members routinely ask about obtaining a Basic Credential Certificate after taking the 12 Basic Core Courses at an Annual, Region, or District Training Seminar.

Completion of the courses meet part of the requirements for a Basic Credential, it is not an automatic process.

Credential Application Requirements

1. Member of ICPC
2. CEU and ICPC CEU hours/criteria:
 - Basic—3.5 CEU (ICPC-1.8 Basic Core Courses)
 - Liaison—4.0 CEU (ICPC-1.8 Basic Core Courses and .45 Liaison I, II and III)
 - Senior—15 CEU (ICPC-1.5); hold a Basic/Liaison Credential; 5 years as a law enforcement chaplain
 - Master—35 (ICPC-3.5); hold a Senior Credential; 10 years as a law enforcement chaplain

The ICPC Credentialing Pamphlet (available on the front side of our website under the Credential Tab or HERE) provides definitions and additional details.

After review of the Credentialing Pamphlet, verify with the Academic Team to see if you meet all the requirements.

Once verified, you must apply for a credential by completing the appropriate application form from the ICPC website (icpc4cops.org)—Members Only Section—Credential Folder.

Members of the ICPC Credential Committee are eager to assist our members in obtaining higher levels of credentials.

There are committee members in each region of ICPC who conduct the interviews required for Senior and Master Credential Levels.

You will find them helpful as you seek any of the offered credential levels. Their names are listed on the website (Members Only Section—Committee Folder—Committee Roster). Please do not hesitate to contact them if you need assistance in preparing your application.

Credential Certificates—Final Approval

Basic, Liaison, Senior, and Master Level—Certificates and pins are mailed from the ICPC Corporate office.

Diplomate and Fellow—Certificates and pins are presented at the ATS.

Transcripts

Our Academic Team: Dr. John Transue, Academic Registrar and Mike Hendricks, Assistant Academic Registrar strive to maintain accurate records; however, it behooves each member to maintain a record of ICPC courses and/or other academic submissions.

Again, please consult the Credential Pamphlet for additional information regarding requirements for each credential level.

THE BADGE

Standing there in his dress blues he vows to give his best.
Can he know the gravity of the badge now on his chest?
Visions in his mind, he's going to change the world.
He's sure to find, like us once blind, to the violence unfurled.

He took the call and gave his all there's so little time to rest
Not withstanding so demanding, this badge upon his chest.
Now things he sees is fitful dreams that somehow should not be,
All the things he happened on that he cannot un-see.

Now there's prayers he prays at night, and fears that he confessed
Now he knows it grows and grows the weight that's on his chest.
Somewhere on a lonely street a single shot rings out.
Lying there in his dress blues he gave the world his best.
Succumbing to the weight of it they lay his soul to rest.

Grand Prairie Police Officer A.J. Castaneda #472

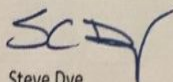

To the Men & Women of the International Conference of Police Chaplains:

On Friday, June 7, 2019 at 10:30 a.m., the City of Grand Prairie suffered a devastating loss when Officer A.J. Castaneda was killed while working speed enforcement on the President George Bush Turnpike. Officer Castaneda had served as a Grand Prairie Police Officer for five years. Prior to his service with GPPD, A.J. was a Deputy for six years with the Tarrant County Sheriff's Office and served his country for eight years in the U.S. Coast Guard.

A.J. was a devoted son and father who died doing what he loved – protecting and serving our community. Officer Castaneda was a model police officer with a tireless work ethic and a servant's heart who had achieved his lifelong dream of returning to serve in Grand Prairie where he spent many of his formative years as a child. While A.J. was taken from us far too early, he accomplished a level of service equal to the lifetimes of many others and received many professional accolades in his career. He will always be remembered for his passion and love for service, particularly for his youth engagement efforts, and his willingness to always place other's needs ahead of his own.

Officer Castaneda's death highlights the dangers our police officers face each day as they serve our community. While our department, our city, and our profession is in pain over this tragedy, we have been equally inspired, encouraged, and strengthened by the tremendous outpouring of support. On behalf of the Grand Prairie Police Department and the Castaneda family, please accept our heartfelt thanks for your condolences and prayers as they are most appreciated.

Sincerely,

Steve Dye
Chief of Police
