PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ronald J. White,
President

50th Anniversary Celebration

As we now focus on our journey to July 2023, the International Conference of Police Chaplains (ICPC) will celebrate its 50th Anniversary. How did we get to this point? At the inception of ICPC, our founders had positive and forward thinking. Positive thinking has to do with being able to control your focus regardless of what kind of challenges you are facing. ICPC has done this for 50 years!!! This can be a tough challenge because when all you see around you is negativity or poor results, it is a lot easier to think negatively and focus on things like why bad things always happen to you or why you can never seem to achieve your goals. This can be a trap that can destroy your life and the life of ICPC in terms of prevention from ever realizing goals and dreams.

Why is being able to look at things positively important? The main reason is because what you focus on will affect your actions. If you think about how the world is always against you because every time you set a goal you fail to achieve it, will that make you want to continue going for your goals with enthusiasm and passion? Probably not. When you think positively even though things aren't going your way, your mind will work towards finding a solution to make things work. Your actions will be different because your focus will be different.

The problem that many people have is that thinking positively is easier said than done. When you are in the middle of a challenge or change, it's not always easy to look on the bright side of things. So how do you have positive thoughts when there seems to be no evidence that you will achieve your goals or get pass your challenge? Faith. You have to have faith that you will be better off if you believe in yourself and keep fighting for your dreams. It's not something that everyone can do but it's something that you can develop.

I've stated before that you can start to create a more positive mindset by reading positive books or listening to positive CDs every day. One really great book is, "The Power of Positive Thinking" by Norman V. Peale. By constantly feeding your mind with positive material, you will get used to seeing the brighter side of things. You can also start to hang around positive and encouraging people as well since their attitudes can help change yours. Just thinking positive isn't enough to change your life though.

The best way is to go beyond positive thinking is to focus on taking action. Get in the habit of taking action even when it's hard. Let's say you failed to reach your financial goals. What do you do now? You take action. Do something about it. It's only when you take action that can you change your situation. Thinking positive is great but sometimes it can be hard to think of the right things but if you take action every time you fail, you will build momentum. The reason why negative thinking will cause you to fail is because it will cause you to not want to do anything. The only thing that beats a failure is a try!!!

If you combine a positive mentality and the habit of taking action, you will have a much greater chance of achieving your goals. Will thinking positively all the time guarantee success? Of course not, but if you think negatively all the time, that's a guarantee that you will fail. Thank you for all you do for ICPC and I look forward to seeing you at the 50th Anniversary Celebration of the International Conference of Police Chaplains July 17-21 2023 in Arizona!!!

My Journal Finale

July found me in the air multiple times.

I had taken my aisle seat on a flight out of LaGuardia wearing my FOP Lodge shirt. A strapping young man was walking by, pointed at my shirt, and said: “Madison, Wisconsin.” I replied: “Cape Girardeau, Missouri.” It turns out he is a graduate of the University of Missouri.

Several weeks later, I was seated on a flight out of Dallas wearing the same shirt. (Yes, I had laundered it.) One of the flight attendants walked by and asked whether I was a retired officer. I told her I was a police chaplain. Her husband is a cop. She thanked me for my service.

Ya just never know.

The time has come for me to offer thanks for YOUR service. Due to recurring health issues and other factors, I have resigned as chair of the ICPC Public Relations Committee and the committee itself, on which I have sat for almost 20 years. I pray for a fresh spirit and new life with whomever succeeds me.

Remember you don't have to accomplish big things in your work. Often, it's the little things that count.

God bless. And be careful out there.

Peer support, Chaplain to Chaplain program

While at the ATS in Orlando I had the great opportunity to meet with several of our chaplains at the Peer table. There were moments to share old times and new times. We had time to share and listen about issues that were perplexing us. We even had an opportunity to deal with two very serious and hurting crises. I share this with all of you, I am glad God gave me two ears and said now listen more than speak. It really is amazing how that works. Having the honor to hear someone share their very heart is not only humbling it is down right life changing.

Many others came by, and we had a chance to talk, laugh, hug and even cry. It was great. Peer is nothing more than chaplain to chaplain. A time to listen to each other because we have been there. We have experienced life in the same realm. We have walked the same steps and saw the same mud, blood and beer.

The table, as I call it, was a place of welcoming. We greeted you with a smile and handshake. We wanted to make you feel like you truly belonged because you do. Whether you are the President or one of the ICPC chaplains without a title we all are the same. We are ONE under God! Peer or chap to chap is a way to watch over each other and say we care. Just remember, everything said to us is confidential except for the hug, handshake, laugh or cry.

Next year we will be out there again waiting to greet you and let you know you are still important to us and that we are here for you. It doesn't change. Time does not matter. What does matter is you. So, don't wait for next year to come. Call us now, even if is just to talk.

I wanted to make this article short and meaningful. My hope for the future is to let everyone know how important you are and that we are here for you. Don't be afraid to pick up the phone and call us. I promise, it will be a wonderful experience to have someone willing to listen instead of trying to fix you on the other line. Blessings to all. We love you all!

Drive Through Prayers

When I encounter law enforcement officers, I tell them I appreciate their sacrifice and service. Their typical response is, “Thank you.”

About six months ago, I received a different reply. The police officer commented, “Thank you. It’s my pleasure to serve.”

To serve is part of their job description, yet to hear his response caused me to consider law enforcement officers on a more personal level.

After considering another way to show appreciation, I found out about the opportunity of donating store and restaurant gift cards to police headquarters. The cards are given to officers who receive compliments from citizens and for completing extra training beyond what is required.

While I knew this token of thanks meant someone cared about their service, the action appeared insufficient. Yet, I could not think of another option.

After engaging in additional conversations with officers over the past several months, I acquired a deeper understanding of their experiences while on the job.

I realized more about their sacrifice.

However, what could I do as one person?

The next time I saw an officer on patrol, I mentioned the only thing I knew to do was pray for him. He enthusiastically stated, “That would be great! Thank you.”

That interaction led me to ask God for guidance.

The answer came in the form of praying for law enforcement and first responders in a unique format. I met with the pastors at my home church, explained the background, and asked them to consider hosting a “drive-through” prayer event in the church parking lot. They unanimously agreed with the idea.

Before the June event, Our Heavenly Father provided several members of Chesterfield County Police leadership to aid in notifying the officers and first responders countywide of the date and time.

Several weeks before the event, my county contact reported many employees responded, “What a great idea!”

I immediately replied, “The glory goes to God.”

The International Conference of Police Chaplains mission is “Developing professional chaplains through dynamic education and support”. I believe in the mission and have benefitted by receiving hundreds of our hours of quality law enforcement chaplaincy training over the past 28 years. All the while developing lifelong friends though the fellowship at Annual and Regional Training Seminars.

ICPC desires to continue to set the standard for law enforcement chaplaincy. The only way that can be accomplished is by investing funds in development and programs. We have set up our “Get Our 6” campaign to help raise financial support and awareness of ICPC’s mission. As any law enforcement officer knows, having a partner who you know and trust tell you; “I’ve got your 6” might mean the difference between going home safe or being injured or killed in the line of duty. I am encouraging each ICPC member to get behind the mission of ICPC and put your financial support where it will do the most good.

The “Get our 6” campaign is designed to make it easy for our Chaplains, our friends and our houses of worship to support the ministry of ICPC. A one time gift or a monthly gift will make a big difference to what we can accomplish in the coming year. Your contribution may be processed through the ICPC Donation Button on our website’s homepage. You will have the option to designate your donation as a recurring gift and then you won’t have to think about it again. Remember, your generous donation qualifies as an IRS tax exemption.

If ICPC is going to continue to be the premiere law enforcement chaplaincy organization, we must have the funds to aggressively address our future. Prayerfully consider what God would lead you to donate to our “Get our 6” campaign, then share the opportunity with your friends and houses of worship.

that loses an officer, it's an entire nation."

-Chris Cosgriff, ODMP Founder

Line of Duty Death MEMORIAL PROGRAM

On April 17, 1984, the Arkansas Miller County Sheriff's Department received the first ICPC Line of Duty Death (LODD) memorial.

The memorials and letters expressing our condolence on their loss are presented to the agency head, with a courtesy copy for the deceased officer's family.

Memorial Program donations are tax deductible, please consider partnering with us in this vital ministry.

We invite you to partner with us to continue this vital ministry of compassion to those who have experienced a Line of Duty Death (LODD).

Upon notification of a LODD from the Officer Down Memorial Page (ODMP), ICPC prepares a memorial for presentation to the agency and family.

THE BADGE

Standing there in his dress blues he vows to give his best.
Can he know the gravity of the badge now on his chest?
Visions in his mind, he's going to change the world.
He's sure to find, like us once blind, to the violence unfurled.

He took the call and gave his all there's so little time to rest
Not withstanding so demanding, this badge upon his chest.
Now things he sees is fitful dreams that somehow should not be,
All the things he happened on that he cannot un-see.

Now there's prayers he prays at night, and fears that he confessed
Now he knows it grows and grows the weight that's on his chest.
Somewhere on a lonely street a single shot rings out.
Lying there in his dress blues he gave the world his best.
Succumbing to the weight of it they lay his soul to rest.

History of ICPC LOGO

The ICPC logo is shaped like a five-pointed star of the early peace officer which was made famous by the Texas Rangers. Superimposed upon this is the more modern shield, the badge of office for those who have sworn to “shield” the public from those who would violate the law.

A field of blue, for truth, is surrounded by a circle of gold, for the unity of our chaplain family. Superimposed on the shield are the symbols of the Judean-Christian faith, signifying faiths of ICPC’s Founders, the six-pointed Star of David and the Cross of Christ.

A laurel wreath, a symbol of honor, surrounds the shield distinguishing the law enforcement profession. At the top of the shield is a rising sun signifying God’s Word.

Thus, we have both symbols of law enforcement and faith inextricably woven together and superimposed to symbolize our office as law enforcement chaplains.

REMINDER: The ICPC logo is a Registered Trademark and cannot be used without permission. Members are allowed to use appropriately sanctioned logos, found in the Members Only Section of the ICPC website: icpc4cops.org
