PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ronald J. White,
President

The ICPC TEAM

The concept of teamwork is extremely important to the success of any organization, certainly ICPC. Over the years I have learned that you can have a group of superior performers, but if they do not work well as one unit, chances are they are not going to be as successful as you would think.

My children love football, and each one has their favorite team and players. At times, though, the players get moved around for the benefit of the whole. Sports teams are no different than any other team. In fact, most organizations use this thought in team-building events or day-to-day operations.

In my experience the teamwork concept is extremely essential to whether or not we thrive as an organization. From the President all the way to our support team we have always made it our mission to provide an atmosphere that is conducive and susceptible to provide the epitomization of chaplain training in every opportunity.

Each and every team member is provided with the tools to be successful in all areas of our organization. While we all have strengths and weaknesses, it is without fail that we can accommodate the most challenging of situations, kind of like a football team!

I have of some imperative questions to ask ourselves for thought as an organization...

Does our ICPC team openly encourage and support one another?
Is there mutual respect among our ICPC team?
Is our ICPC team as a whole committed to excellence in improving performance?

I am honored to be a part of an organization, a family really, that exudes excellence and teamwork!

Whether we have a team of 2,500, a team of 500, a team of 50 or are simply on your own, the value of the message in teamwork is pertinent. We all have partners in professional and personal aspects of life. We all have goals to reach. Having the right people supporting you is significant to a flourishing chaplaincy and ultimately a happy, balanced life. There is no other chaplain organization as efficient and concomitant in serving the Law Enforcement community as ICPC.

I know that effective teamwork is essential to successful change. But I also want ICPC to understand the differences in change between successful and unsuccessful change efforts. Our goal is to characterize ICPC to be change-capable.

Remember that, as ICPC continues to evolve over time, stability and change must coexist — which is not a problem to solve, but rather a polarity to manage. To help ICPC to achieve its full potential, we must acknowledge both poles simultaneously.

ICPC must continue to move forward in all aspects of our leadership and teamwork to our local agencies that we serve to include change and progress in providing the most elite training and service to our agencies.

I will close with this thought on Success...

Happiness comes not from having much to live on but having much to live for.
Success never resides in the world of weak wishes,
but in the palace of purposeful plans and prayerful persistence.

Pessimism achieves no success over persistence.
Temporary defeat never spells total failure;
one victory never assures permanent success.

A real success is one who makes his mark in life without smearing others.
Excellence without effort is as futile as progress without preparation
Work can be our friend or foe, joy or our woe.

Success, like happiness, is more than a destination - it is a venture; more than an achievement - it is an attitude.
The greatest failure is the failure to try.
Alter your attitude and you will change your life.

He who seeks success, let him prepare.
Improvement is the son of discontent;
success is the offspring of preparation.
To emphasize the positive - the affirmative - is to travel the high road of joy.

ICPC International Chair Meets with Israeli Police Chief Chaplain

ICPC International Committee Chair, Harold D. Gingerich met with the Chief Chaplain of the Israel Police, Rabbi Rami Brackyuahu, on Sunday, October 30, 2022, in Jerusalem, Israel. The meeting was set up by New York Transit Authority Chaplain Rabbi Harry Berkowitz who arranged for Chaplain Gingerich to be a part of the October 22nd -31st Police Unity Tour.

“Rabbi Berkowitz called me in early June; and to tell the truth, I almost didn’t answer this call because I didn’t recognize the number,” Gingerich said. “And, when he gave me his name and said that he was calling from Jerusalem, I almost hung up because I was sure it had to be a scam. But it wasn’t!”

Berkowitz explained that Chief Chaplain Rabbi Brackyuahu with the Israel Police was interested in what ICPC was doing and the training we have to offer. Berkowitz suggested that we extend an invitation to Rabbi Brackyuahu to join the 2022 Orlando ATS.

While an invitation to attend the 2022 ATS in Orlando was sent to Rabbi Brackyuahu, there was not enough time for the approval process to work its way up the chain of command. Rabbi Berkowitz, who has been a long-time friend of Rabbi Brackyuahu, did attend the Orlando ATS where he met with Chaplain Gingerich and other ICPC leaders face to face. Berkowitz strongly encourage Gingerich to join the Police Unity Tour and said that he would set of a meeting with Rabbi Brackyuahu. With the blessing of ICPC President Ronnie White, Gingerich signed up for the tour which was comprised of 50 police officers from across the United States.

On Sunday afternoon, October 30th, Chaplain Gingerich and Rabbi Berkowitz met with Israeli Chief Chaplain Rabbi Brackyuahu and Rabbi Shimon Shukron. Rabbi Shukron is the lead chaplain for the Jerusalem District. The Israel Police chaplaincy corps is comprised of Jewish, Christian, and Muslim chaplains.

“The meeting wasn’t more than 20 minutes in length,” Gingerich said, “but I believe it was very productive.” Gingerich presented Rabbi Brackyuahu an ICPC challenge coin, a copy of the 2022 ATS brochure outlining the various classes that were offered, and a copy of the 2022 Peace Officer’s Memorial Service booklet. “I remember him smiling and saying, ‘I have a lot of reading to do.’” He was also pleased with the idea that fallen Israeli police officers could be honored at ICPC’s annual memorial service.

“One of the things Rabbi Brackyuahu said repeatedly was that ‘We need to be there for each other’,” Gingerich recalled. Given the political and religious tensions along with constant treats of terrorism, Israeli police officers and chaplains face unique challenges. The rabbi is eager to attend the 2023 ATS and stated that an invitation should be sent as soon as possible. That invitation has been sent.

In addition to meeting with Rabbi Brackyuahu, Chaplain Gingerich met with a German diplomat in charge of International Relations (stationed in Algeria, Africa) who was a member of the unity tour. She was very excited to hear about the mission of ICPC and said, “I’m sure our German chaplains will be interested in this!”. She assured Chaplain Gingerich that she would be communicating with him, as well as with her German counterparts.

The tour also provided Chaplain Gingerich with an opportunity to promote police chaplaincy with the other members of the tour group. “Everyone in the group knew why I was on the tour, and they went out of their way to include me and encourage me.”

“I will be exciting to see what happens as a result of this trip and my meeting with Rabbi Brackyuahu,” Gingerich said, “and without Rabbi Berkowitz it never would have happened.”

Concerns of Police Survivors

National Conference

The yearly Concerns of Police Survivors National Conference on Law Enforcement Wellness and Trauma is one of the nation's premier law enforcement training events. This year's conference was unique in that it had the largest number of individuals ever in attendance ... 850 ... As well as a unique group of individuals intimately involved with the event ... ICPC Chaplains.

Several of those members had the privilege of attending the World Premiere of the new documentary PTSD911 (Below) on Thursday night, November 3rd. Filling much sought after instructor opportunities ... Chaplains George Papachristou (Middle) and Jim Bontrager (Bottom Right) taught classes on Friday and Saturday to include Developing a Department Chaplaincy and Wellness Team, Sun Tzu and the Officer Resiliency Mindset and Effective Chaplaincy Practices.

ICPC Past President Pam Neal offered the invocation for Saturday night's Law Enforcement Appreciation Night. Past President Wes McDuffie was on hand as well as Region 6 Regional Director J. Wayne Chaisson, Washington State Area Rep. Charlie Scoma, Stockton (CA) PD Chaplain Jesse Kenyon and Elkhart (IN) PD Chaplain Jason Brooks among others. Professional relationships were strengthened and established, world class training was provided to all who attended and the mission of ICPC was shared with attendees from all across the nation.

A Word About the Credential Process

RICHARD KASSEL, CREDENTIAL CHAIR

Members routinely ask about obtaining a Basic Credential Certificate after taking the 12 Basic Core Courses at an Annual, Region, or District Training Seminar.

Completion of the courses meet part of the requirements for a Basic Credential, it is not an automatic process.

Credential Application Requirements

1. Member of ICPC
2. CEU and ICPC CEU hours/criteria:
 - Basic—3.5 CEU (ICPC-1.5 Basic Core Courses)
 - Liaison—4.0 CEU (ICPC-1.5 Basic Core Courses and .45 Liaison I, II and III)
 - Senior—15 CEU (ICPC-1.5); hold a Basic/Liaison Credential; 5 years as a law enforcement chaplain
 - Master—35 CEU (ICPC-3.5); hold a Senior Credential; 10 years as a law enforcement chaplain
 - Diplomate—50 CEU (ICPC-5); hold a Master Credential; 15 years as a law enforcement chaplain; and 20 ATS/RTS Credits
 - Fellow—100 CEU (ICPC 10); hold a Diplomate Credential; 20 years as a law enforcement chaplain; 40 ATS/RTS Credits

The ICPC Credentialing Pamphlet (available on the front side of our website under the Credential Tab or HERE) provides definitions and additional details.

After review of the Credentialing Pamphlet, verify with the Academic Team to see if you meet all the requirements.

Once verified, you must apply for a credential by completing the appropriate application form from the ICPC website (icpc4cops.org)—Members Only Section—Credential Folder.

Members of the ICPC Credential Committee are eager to assist our members in obtaining higher levels of credentials.

There are committee members in each region of ICPC who conduct the interviews required for Senior and Master Credential Levels.

You will find them helpful as you seek any of the offered credential levels. Their names are listed on the website (Members Only Section—Committee Folder—Committee Roster). Please do not hesitate to contact them if you need assistance in preparing your application.

Credential Certificates—Final Approval

Basic, Liaison, Senior, and Master Level—Certificates and pins are mailed from the ICPC Corporate office.

Diplomate and Fellow—Certificates and pins are presented at the ATS.

Transcripts

Dr. John Transue, Academic Registrar, strives to maintain accurate records; however, it behooves each member to maintain a record of ICPC courses and/or other academic submissions.

Again, please consult the Credential Pamphlet for additional information regarding requirements for each credential level.

Blessings

Rick Kassel has been a member of ICPC since 1993 and served as the Region 4 Director, Credential Committee Chair and is a Certified ICPC Instructor. He lives in Indianapolis, IN and retired from the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department (IN)

The International Conference of Police Chaplains mission is “Developing professional chaplains through dynamic education and support”. I believe in the mission and have benefitted by receiving hundreds of our hours of quality law enforcement chaplaincy training over the past 28 years. All the while developing lifelong friends though the fellowship at Annual and Regional Training Seminars.

ICPC desires to continue to set the standard for law enforcement chaplaincy. The only way that can be accomplished is by investing funds in development and programs. We have set up our “Get Our 6” campaign to help raise financial support and awareness of ICPC’s mission. As any law enforcement officer knows, having a partner who you know and trust tell you; “I’ve got your 6” might mean the difference between going home safe or being injured or killed in the line of duty. I am encouraging each ICPC member to get behind the mission of ICPC and put your financial support where it will do the most good.

The “Get our 6” campaign is designed to make it easy for our Chaplains, our friends and our houses of worship to support the ministry of ICPC. A one time gift or a monthly gift will make a big difference to what we can accomplish in the coming year. Your contribution may be processed through the ICPC Donation Button on our website’s homepage. You will have the option to designate your donation as a recurring gift and then you won’t have to think about it again. Remember, your generous donation qualifies as an IRS tax exemption.

If ICPC is going to continue to be the premiere law enforcement chaplaincy organization, we must have the funds to aggressively address our future. Prayerfully consider what God would lead you to donate to our “Get our 6” campaign, then share the opportunity with your friends and houses of worship.

Respectfully submitted,

Line of Duty Death MEMORIAL PROGRAM

On April 17, 1984, the Arkansas Miller County Sheriff's Department received the first ICPC Line of Duty Death (LODD) memorial.

The memorials and letters expressing our condolence on their loss are presented to the agency head, with a courtesy copy for the deceased officer's family.

Memorial Program donations are tax deductible, please consider partnering with us in this vital ministry.

We invite you to partner with us to continue this vital ministry of compassion to those who have experienced a Line of Duty Death (LODD).

Upon notification of a LODD from the Officer Down Memorial Page (ODMP), ICPC prepares a memorial for presentation to the agency and family.

THE BADGE

Standing there in his dress blues he vows to give his best.
Can he know the gravity of the badge now on his chest?
Visions in his mind, he's going to change the world.
He's sure to find, like us once blind, to the violence unfurled.

He took the call and gave his all there's so little time to rest
Not withstanding so demanding, this badge upon his chest.
Now things he sees is fitful dreams that somehow should not be,
All the things he happened on that he cannot un-see.

Now there's prayers he prays at night, and fears that he confessed
Now he knows it grows and grows the weight that's on his chest.
Somewhere on a lonely street a single shot rings out.
Lying there in his dress blues he gave the world his best.
Succumbing to the weight of it they lay his soul to rest.

History of ICPC LOGO

The ICPC logo is shaped like a five-pointed star of the early peace officer which was made famous by the Texas Rangers. Superimposed upon this is the more modern shield, the badge of office for those who have sworn to “shield” the public from those who would violate the law.

A field of blue, for truth, is surrounded by a circle of gold, for the unity of our chaplain family. Superimposed on the shield are the symbols of the Judean-Christian faith, signifying faiths of ICPC’s Founders, the six-pointed Star of David and the Cross of Christ.

A laurel wreath, a symbol of honor, surrounds the shield distinguishing the law enforcement profession. At the top of the shield is a rising sun signifying God’s Word.

Thus, we have both symbols of law enforcement and faith inextricably woven together and superimposed to symbolize our office as law enforcement chaplains.

REMINDER: The ICPC logo is a Registered Trademark and cannot be used without permission. Members are allowed to use appropriately sanctioned logos, found in the Members Only Section of the ICPC website: icpc4cops.org
