Marriage Wisdom Nugget:

"The whole is other than the sum of the parts" (Koffka) is often translated as "The whole is greater than the sum of its parts" One aspect of marriage may not be all that we would have it to be but that "part" does not have to negate the good of the "whole". If we focus only on the part that displeases us, we will inherently consider the "whole" displeasing. (...Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. Philippians 4:8)

Two favorite scriptures

"When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior. I give Egypt as your ransom, Cush and Seba in exchange for you. Because you are precious in my eyes, and honored, and I love you, I give men in return for you, peoples in exchange for your life." - Isaiah 43: 2-4

"And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock." - Matthew 7:25
