FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY TO US ALL!!

I would like to share the following of both my thoughts mingled with some online inspiration.

Father-love is irreplaceable. Whether we're celebrating our dads, stepdads, granddads, God-dads, brothers, sons, uncles or other father figures in our lives, these men (we) need to hear what a difference their (our) love makes. 1 Thessalonians 5:11 reminds us to "encourage one another and build each other up," and Father's Day is a chance for us to do just that. Lift our fathers and special men up; celebrate their unique calling; remind them how much they're appreciated every single day. It is also a time to remember those men that have made an impact in our lives but are no longer with us. We've all had to say goodbye to good men in our lives, and Father's Day is certainly a time to honor their memory. Proverbs 10:7 says: "The memory of the righteous is blessed." Let's spend some time today reflecting on the legacy they've left – how did they show the love of Christ? What did they teach us about being men of God, and how can we pass that wisdom on to others? Consider writing a note of encouragement to one of the men in your life who's building a lasting legacy. Remind him that the choices he's making today and the time he's taking to pour into his children (the little ones and the grown ones!) will impact generations to come. Even outside of Father's Day, I am often taken back to words from and moments with my own Father, the late Deacon John Henry Davis. He was a man of faith, a man of inspiration, a man of family....and that is the legacy I hope I am carrying on and passing down to my sons and grandsons. Men, what legacy are YOU leaving?

This past week, we were on "The Faith Run" in Vacation Bible School (well it was more like Study not School anymore), and what a "run" it was! Thank you to the VBS Leaders and those who volunteered throughout the week. We also thank our Church Celebrations Ministry for another jam-packed Family Fun Day. We ate, line danced, swam, relaxed, played, and fellowshiped as a Church Family and we had a great, blessed time. Here's to 2018!

Calling all children and youth....the weekend we set aside for you is coming! This Saturday we hope all of you will be present and participating in our Children's and Youth Weekend. Please sign up for the events on the Youth Board. We once again congratulate our Graduates and all students on a great school year. We hope that you, along with the teachers and administrators, will have a safe, blessed summer....and that you will get ready for another year of hard work and blessings. We are looking for you to "Rise Up" and make a definitive difference for the Cause of Christ. We are excited about our Children and Youth...we are excited about our Fathers...and we are AN EXCITING CHURCH EXCITED ABOUT ITS MISSION!

THE DEACON'S MESSAGE

We should view the world through the eyes of Christ. Since we have accepted Jesus as our Lord and Savior, He has entered our hearts and minds. Therefore, we should be concerned about the things that concern Him. We should live a life that matters by pursuing the goals set forth by His father, God. Colossians 3:1-2, The Message reminds us to look at things from the perspective of Christ. "So if you're serious about living this new resurrection life with Christ, act like it. Pursue the things over which Christ presides. Don't shuffle along, eyes to the ground, absorbed with the things right in front of you. Look up, and be alert to what is going on around Christ—that's where the action is. See things from his perspective." If you find you have a distorted view of life, look through the eyes of Christ and watch everything fall into perspective.
