FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

It's almost the middle of August....MISSIONS Month is rolling right along! Thank you to those who are giving food for the Food Pantry Challenge. We are a little slow on reaching our goals for our food items...so let's dig in and get to giving! We need these items to help in our weekly Food Pantry Ministry. I am confident that we can reach our goal of 100 of EACH ITEM! This week, along with the oatmeal, rice, dry beans, and pasta we pray you have already brought in (and that you can STILL bring in), we hope you will be "'Cereal-ously' Serving"....and that you will bring in boxes of cereal...help us get to 100----'cause 99 won't do!!!! We can do it, I KNOW we can! This is an annual food drive within the life of this church that is critical for our ongoing Food Pantry supply. Don't forget the other MISSION opportunity of bringing cleaning items for the ACT Ministry Project as well. Remember, Jesus said, "when you do it unto the least of these you have done it unto me"....So, let's treat Jesus really nice ☺.

We saw a lot of guests from the community come through our doors this week at our Annual Back to School event. Thank you to all who gave supplies and bookbags and those who gave of their time to volunteer and serve. Special appreciation to our planning committee, which included Sister Rebecca Oats, Executive Director of the West End Community Foundation, Inc. and Minister Emily Carroll, our Minister to Children and Youth. Great thanks also to Minister John Carter, our Minister of Christian Education, who lead this charge and special event with his usual Theological exuberance! ☺

Next weekend we will highlight our MISSION ministries. On Saturday, we will have our first of 2 Clothing Giveaway at Ma Bessie's House! This event is sponsored by the Daughters of Calvary. On next Sunday, the Senior Missionaries and Daughters of Calvary will celebrate MISSION Sunday. Both of these MISSION ministries are dedicated to serving the least of us. I am appreciative of their sacrifice of time, talents and treasures. On the 4th Sunday, we will host guests from my Alma Mater, as the Johnson C. Smith Alumni Concert is held here. Plan to come out, not just for JCSU, but to hear our own Mass Choir as well! As always, we need your support in our Study Ministries, so please come to Sunday School and come each Wednesday night for Bible Study (don't forget Noon Day Prayer on Wednesdays as well). We need and value your presence. I remind you that a learning congregation is a growing congregation! Ready, Set.....GROW!

MISSION MATTERS! My brothers and sisters, I close my message this week with that reminder....MISSION MATTERS! What we do for others makes a difference. So make sure you are doing something....for someone else. MISSION MATTERS! So seek out your MISSION...a directive from our Lord and Savior....something to be passionate about....something to change someone and to change you too. As we have shared on last Sunday and today, our MISSION should be PURPOSED UP! We were created to Worship...serve...and bring others to HIM! Make that your MISSION. MISSION MATTERS....so let's move forward in excellence and excitement....not only because MISSION MATTERS.....but also because we are AN EXCITING CHURCH EXCITED ABOUT ITS MISSION!

THE DEACON'S MESSAGE

Immediately! That is when we want our prayers answered. There are times we feel God cannot move soon enough to solve our problems, vanquish an enemy or heal an ailment that has been troubling us for quite some time. Since God is our Father we take being his children to heart... when we want something. Praise God He is still there even when we think we don't need him. How soon does God answer our prayers? Immediately sounds great because if He answers immediately it means it is answered without delay. God takes it one step further and answers our prayers beforehand, in anticipation of. Here's proof! "I will answer them before they even call to me. While they are still talking to me about their needs, I will go ahead and answer their prayers!" (Isaiah 65:24, NLT) How soon does God answer? Before you call. Remember, God is not bound by time so if you are waiting for an answer to a prayer; know by faith it has been answered and the solution is on the way.
