FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

"Young Adult-ish: Seeking Spiritual Oneness"...what an appropriate theme for Young Adult Sunday! This special demographic in our world today is one that is very knowledgeable in the tech world, but as the Church, we are concerned with their being "spiritually saavy". We are very excited about the re-emergence of our Young Adult Ministry. We invite those that are 18-38 to join and become active with this exciting group as it moves forward with new, energetic leadership! We welcome Minister Ernest Brooks and his wife to our services on today. We are certain that God will bless this special Worship.

Let me speak on "seeking spiritual oneness". This thought is a good one....for disciples of all ages. The word oneness defined is, "the fact or state of being unified or whole, though comprised of two or more parts; the fact or state of being one in number." Therefore, the concept of spiritual oneness lends itself to being whole in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. When we seek to be in right relationship with Him, He moves to seek our "oneness" with Him. This spiritual alignment, then, can permeate the very fiber of who we are. It can, moreover, literally spill out into our homes....our jobs...our communities...anywhere that we have relationship with others. It is certainly admirable that this a goal and theme of our young adults, we can all benefit from a "spiritual oneness" and right relationship with God.

February is already half over! We are elated that the dancers and musicians from The Harambee Collective are our special guests today as we celebrate African American History Month. We hope you have learned a thing or two from the History inserts that are in the bulletin. In this day of Ancestry.com, 23 and me, and other heritage websites, there is such a growing curiosity around lineage and history. So, what are you doing to learn more about YOU? What makes you tick? Find out something you didn't know about YOUR history this week...and gon' and post it and share ☺. Moreover, as we seek to serve, what has God placed in you to benefit others?

As we move into the last 2 weeks of the shortest month of the year, don't forget that Ministry is always going on at our Home on the Hill! Next week, we will celebrate our history and our hearts with "Go Red....with some African Attire" Sunday....so wear some red and/or African attire and let's represent! Then, we march into March....with All Tithers/Prove Me Sunday on the first Sunday. Spring is on the horizon, and as always, we are AN EXCITING CHURCH EXCITED ABOUT ITS MISSION!

THE DEACON'S MESSAGE

What we face from day to day pales in comparison to seeing the mighty acts of God. However, when unforeseen situations arise in our lives we wonder how we will make it through. If we use God's ability to overcome our trials as a point of reference for success, we should feel at ease about the outcome. It would make sense for us to cower in fear if we did not know God or had no contact with his power; but everyone has seen the magnificent display of his love for his children. Whether we choose to believe in his reality is left up to us. Deuteronomy 11:7 (KJV) speaks truthfully: "But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD, which He did." You don't have to look back to the Bible to see what God has done. Just look around at your family, where you live, or listen to your beating heart. We all have irrefutable proof that God is in our midst; and having God in our midst makes all the difference.
